By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The consumer's market was wide open today—not a price ceiling in sight—and there was talk of coffee and perhaps beer costing more.

President Eisenhower's step-by-step return to a free consumer economy came to a halt yesterday after a six week control-thawing drive. The latest order lifted price ceilings from goods selling at the rate of 40 billion dollars a year.

Next date on the decontrol calendar is April 30 when, unless extended by Congress, the law which authorized wage-price controls and created the Office of Price Stabilization expires after 27 months on the books.

Old Veteran, 111, Dies In Hospital

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—James A. Hard, the nation's oldest Civil War veteran, died Thursday night at 111 of complications that followed a leg amputation.

The right leg of the aged Union infantryman was cut off above the knee March 2 because of a progressive circulatory deficiency in his foot.

Hard's death left but one survivor of the Union Army and four veterans of the Confederate forces.

Hard fought in the battles of Bull Run, Chancellorsville, Antietam and Fredericksburg.

The lone survivor of the 2,675-600 men who were the Union blue is Albert Woolson, 106, of Duluth, Minn.

The four remaining of nearly 900,000 who served in Confederate gray are William A. Lundate, 105, of Laurel Hill, Fla.; Thomas E. Riddle, 106, of Austin, Tex.; John Salling, 105, of Slant, Va.; and Walter Williams, 110, of Franklin, Tex.

Detroit Has 100th Birthday

DETROIT (AP)—Friday the Thirtieth may mean bad luck for many people—but for Arthur B. Cram, a retired engineer living in suburban Royal Oak, it's a big day.

Cram is celebrating his 100th birthday despite a doctor's warning 70 years ago that a "heart condition" would cut short his life.

When he was 30, Cram went to the doctor for a checkup after suffering from a sharp pain. The doctor then issued the dire warning.

"It wasn't my heart at all," Cram recalled. "It was just a plain old fashioned bellyache."

Born in Racine, Wis., March 13, 1853, Cram came to Detroit in 1871 to become an assistant supervisor to his uncle, Gen. Thomas Jefferson Cram, at that time in charge of building the old St. Clair Flats canal.

Cram did government work on Port Huron area construction projects, studied at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, traveled in Europe, and received his masters degree at Penn State College.

He opened his Detroit office in 1881. Many of Detroit's older homes were designed by Cram.

Push Button Reveals Bootleg Whisky In Birmingham, Ala., Home

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Alcohol tax unit agents pushed a button at a suspected bootlegger's house and hit the jackpot. A wall opened and the agents found 325 gallons of liquor.

Homer Snead, agent in charge, said William E. Lynch was arraigned on charges of possession and sale of non-tax paid whisky.

Agents said they had been trying to find liquor at Lynch's home for several years. Yesterday they went to work on a push button wall panel. Some buttons turned lights on and off. Then they pressed the one that opened the wall.

Malenkov Rule Started Under Tension, Crisis

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first few months of Georgi Malenkov's Red rule seem certain to be filled with crisis and tension as he strives to consolidate his power over the far-flung Communist empire.

That conclusion emerged today out of official study and speculation over this week's shooting down by Red planes of two Allied aircraft flying over Germany.

Authorities here were not at all surprised that the Soviets had deliberately ordered these specific incidents—destruction of an American jet pilot fighter and of a British four-engine bomber. But they are convinced that the tough attitude which these incidents reflect on the part of the Soviet high command means more trouble in the future.

Red Protest Rejected
Aside from diplomatic protests, it is not yet clear what the Allied powers intend to do. Basic policy decisions on how tough the U. S., for example, should get may have

Choice Of American Ambassador To Russia Promised Opposition

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today he foresees "formidable opposition" to Senate approval of President Eisenhower's choice of Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen to be ambassador to Russia.

Bridges himself, the GOP president pro tempore of the Senate and chairman of its Appropriations Committee, is among those seeking to prevent Bohlen's confirmation. Neither he nor any of the other senators opposing Bohlen would predict rejection of the nomination.

Regarded As Expert

As in the case of Eisenhower's resolution to condemn Russia for its "perversion" of Yalta and other war-time agreements by enslaving free peoples, Democrats rallied around the Republican President.

Bridges told reporters: "I wouldn't be surprised to see very formidable opposition to the nomination if it is finally put to a vote in the Senate."

He did not explain what he meant by saying "if" the nomination comes to a vote. There was no hint from any other source that Eisenhower would backdown on the nomination of Bohlen, generally regarded as one of the top U. S. experts on Russia.

Senate Majority Leader Taft of Ohio said he intended to vote for Bohlen's confirmation unless something new unforeseen developed. And he said he thought the nomination was not in any danger.

Associate of Hiss
The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has scheduled a vote next Tuesday. The Senate itself could act the next day. The State Department has asked for speedy approval, so that Bohlen can be sent to Moscow to watch changes in the wake of Joseph Stalin's death.

The opposition is based on the argument that Bohlen, State Department counselor at the time of his nomination, is a defender of Roosevelt-Truman foreign policies and that he associated with Alger Hiss.

Hiss, a former State Department employee, is serving a sentence on a charge of lying when he said he had not passed secret State Department documents to a Communist courier.

Exiled Monarch
The exiled Egyptian monarch and the unidentified blonde spent most of the night and early morning in "La Boite Pigalle," one of Rome's few night spots, under the watchful eyes of Fagouk's husky Albanian Moslem guards.

At 3:30 a.m., when newsmen and photographers arrived at the club, the girl was spirited out. Farouk left a few minutes later. As he walked out an Italian policeman and one of the ex-King's guards manhandled a newsmen and a photographer, knocking aside the photographer's camera.

Farouk and his guards drove away in a long, light-colored station wagon.

The ex-King's appearance with the girl—identified only as a "French model"—fanned flames under the rumor pot already bubbling over with conflicting reports that—

1. A divorce or separation is pending for Farouk and Narriman.
2. She is pregnant again.
3. Her departure is a political move to safeguard Egypt's royal dynasty and prepare for the possible return to Egypt of their son, tiny, 13-month-old King Ahmed Fuad II.

Williams Gets No
Recount Refund

LANSING (AP)—Attorney General Frank G. Millard ruled today that Governor Williams is not entitled to a refund of $9,540 he deposited for the recount of gubernatorial votes last December.

Williams actually deposited a total of $12,500, asking for a refund of the balance of the non-voting machine precincts in the state.

Since the total number of machine precincts was not known at the time, Williams purposely overpaid to make sure there was enough money on hand.

It was later learned that non-machine precincts totaled 3,460. Fred M. Alger Jr., the unsuccessful Republican candidate, petitioned for a recount of 1,552. This meant that Williams' petition covered 1,908 precincts.

Millard said that the overpayment of $2,960 was all that could be refunded.

Millard said that the law provides that refund of the $5 per precinct charge for a recount is possible only when the petitioner upsets the official canvass and is certified for election as a result of the recount.

Williams was the winner in both the official canvass and the recount, and therefore, Millard said, his deposit must be distributed among the counties which conducted the recount to help defray the costs.

Soviet Attack Costs Lives Of 6 British Airmen

By DON DOANE

BONN (AP)—Britain accused the Soviet Union today of a deliberate and brutal act of aggression involving murder in the shooting down of a Royal Air Force Lincoln bomber near Hamburg yesterday.

This attacks by Soviet MIGs cost the lives of six British airmen and wounded a seventh. It was the second on Allied planes by Communist planes in three days and spread fear of an undeclared aerial war throughout western Europe.

Jitters Months Ahead
The Western World appeared to be in for months of crisis and tension while Soviet Prime Minister Malenkov solidifies his position in Moscow.

But the U. S. and British Air Forces challenged the trigger-happy communists fighters by flying as usual along the Iron Curtain border today. The Americans said they are bringing in 25 F-86 Sabre jets—their swiftest operational fighters—to replace outmoded F-84 Thunderjets in Germany. The British directed RAF pilots to be especially alert along the East-West border where Soviet fighters apparently have been ordered to shoot on sight.

Punishment Demanded
A strong protest lodged with the Russians today took no cognizance of a Russian announcement last night that the four-engine British bomber had violated the East German frontier and had opened fire first on the much faster and better equipped MIGs.

In tough words, the British high commissioner for Germany, Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick, demanded punishment of the Soviet fliers and reparations for British lives and lost property.

Kirkpatrick's note was delivered to Soviet General of the Army Vassily D. Chukov, top Soviet commander in Germany. Earlier, Soviet authorities delivered to Kirkpatrick a note from Chukov.

Envoy To Russia
May Be Retired

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador George F. Kennan may be permitted to retire instead of being given a new assignment, officials said last night.

Kennan, an expert on Russian affairs, is credited with authorship of the policy of containment of Soviet power—a policy which Secretary of State Dulles has criticized as inadequate.

Kennan, in turn, has been critical of a policy of liberation toward the Russian satellites, a favorite Dulles theme.

Kennan, after five months as ambassador to Moscow, was banned by the Reds last year after voicing criticism of the way foreigners are treated there.

He could be retired under legal provision requiring that a "chief of mission" be retired unless given a new assignment within three months after his services as chief of mission are ended.

Family Awaits 13th
Baby Daughter Today

PITTSFIELD, Me. (AP)—Birth of a 13th child in the nation's largest all-girl brood is expected today, Friday the 13th, by all concerned—except Mrs. Lloyd Brooks, the expectant mother.

Mrs. Brooks told reporters she believes the child will arrive Sunday—date of a new moon.

But her husband, a woolen mill worker, and Dr. Francis E. Hanson remained close to the Brooks' home ready to assist at a moment's notice.

Mrs. Brooks, 37, said she hoped for a boy this time. But Brooks, also 37, said, "It can't be a boy now. It will spoil our record."

Piano For 3 Cents

LA SALLE, Ill. (AP)—It appears that pianos from old rural schools in this area are a drug on the market, school officials have learned.

At a recent auction of articles in the Dayton-Wallace Township school, the winning bid for an old piano was three cents. The piano stool was sold for a dime.

Helicopter Saves 5
On Broken Ice Floe

ST. CLAIR (AP)—No wounded soldier or downed flier in Korea ever welcomed a helicopter with a warmer heart than did five Michigan persons in yesterday's twilight.

The helicopter from the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station plucked them off a crumbling ice floe in Anchor Bay off Lake St. Clair.

They were stranded when the floe broke off from shore ice while they were fishing through it four miles off New Baltimore.

Air Force Sends Jets To Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force said early today that 25 Sabre jets will leave "very soon" in a mass flight to Germany.

An Air Force spokesman said the planes, a normal squadron, are replacements for F84 Thunderjet fighter bombers.

The spokesman emphasized the F86 Sabre jets are not going to Germany as a result of the incident in Weisbaden, Germany, in which an American Thunderjet was shot down by two Czech MIG15s.

He said Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff, told a press conference in Paris last October that the F84 jet would be replaced by the F86 Sabre jet.

He added that the replacements were "in the cards" since then and that the Air Force view is toward replacing all of the Thunderjets in Germany eventually.

U. S. Air Force headquarters in Weisbaden denied reports that squadrons of Sabrejets were on the way as reinforcements in view of the latest incident in which Soviet jets shot down a British plane on Thursday.

Details Of Wrights'
First Flight In 1903

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Library of Congress said today it has made a new and better copy of the only photograph taken of the Wright brothers' first airplane flight near Kitty Hawk, N. C., Dec. 17, 1903.

The new print "shows many details not visible in any known previous printing," including a few which perhaps only the Wrights knew about, the library said in a statement.

Prints made from the Wrights' negative usually have been trimmed down so that little shows except the plane and Wilbur Wright's running figure.

The new copy shows the launch track and the position of the plane before take-off.

It turned out the five were members of three separate fishing parties that had put out across the ice from Fairhaven, Mich., at 1 p. m. Mrs. Nona Jackson, 52, who walked to the edge of shore ice with her husband, Isaac, 54, of Marine City, fell in when the ice collapsed beneath her. The husband and another fisherman pulled her out, but the turbulence apparently started a reaction amid the mass of four-inch, mushy ice.

Shortly thereafter Mrs. Jackson and four fishermen found they were afloat on a floe 150 feet in diameter.

Besides the Jacksons, others rescued were: John Porzanski, 62, of Fair Haven; Wesley Russell, 36, of Highland Park; and Vernon Nash, 52, Highland Park.

Because the day was mild, none suffered from exposure.

Eden Denounces Red Air Assault As Barbaric Act

NEW YORK (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden has denounced as "barbaric" the shooting down of an RAF bomber by a pair of Soviet MIG jets.

Eden, delivering a major speech last night before the Foreign Policy Association, departed from his prepared text to lash out at Russia over yesterday's attack on the British plane, which killed six of the seven crewmen.

Reading text, Eden said the U. S. and Britain stood ready to negotiate with Russia—despite Premier Stalin's death—and that both nations would welcome a similar intention from the Soviets.

Shooting Deliberate
Discarding the text momentarily, Eden added:

"There is nothing of the kind up to the present. On the contrary we have today heard of the shooting down while on a routine exercise of a Royal Air Force training bomber . . .

" . . . Deliberate and unprovoked attacks of this kind by what are supposed to be friendly forces can only be called barbaric."

The RAF plane fell in flames yesterday after the MIGs attacked above the Elbe River Valley at the East-West frontier of Germany. Britain's government ordered a protest "in the strongest terms." The Moscow radio already has claimed the bomber had been violating the Soviet zone of Germany.

More than 1,800 persons jammed the main ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to hear Eden's speech, which also had a nationwide radio and television audience.

Only Partial War
Eden urged the United States to fight only a "partial" war in Korea, which he termed a "thankless" assignment and added:

"It is one thing for a nation to throw its entire strength into a fight for survival. It is another to conduct a partial war with all kinds of restraint upon your action."

"And yet we know that these restraints must be maintained."

Eden was interrupted with applause when he said that no goods of strategic importance had gone to Red China from British sources in nearly two years.

Louisiana Town Has Riot Jitters

By JAMES MCLEAN

ELIZABETH, La. (AP)—Unions and paper mills will try to unsmile a deadlocked strike today in this violence-frightened town where shotgun-toting state police are hunting dynamite terrorists.

For six jittery months, 500 strikers and two paper mills operating with new workers have failed too agree on contract terms.

Seniority rights and rehiring of all strikers are major differences still to be ironed out.

Mill owner C. G. McGehee Sr. of Jacksonville, Fla., voicing his wrath at outbursts of violence, has said he would not submit a labor decision to "riots and lynch laws."

McGehee operates the Calcasieu Paper Company and Southern Industries, which makes paper bags.

Strikers' locals are the International Brotherhood of Papermakers and International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Papermill workers (AFL).

Marauders in the night who tossed dynamite for weeks have wrecked plant workers' homes and automobiles along with power lines and the town's only tavern. Strikers' vehicles have been blasted, too.

Spiritual Diary For Lent

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day upon day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard.—Psalm 19:1-3.

The spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue etherial sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame
Their great Original proclaim.

—Joseph Addison

TODAY'S MESSAGE
When a man complains about the problems which harass his everyday life and begins to think that perhaps he has been singled out for misfortune, I would recommend that he step out into the night and let his eyes rest for a while on the sparkling Heaven above him. Let him reflect on what he sees and try to imagine what lies beyond the space which he can scan.

In the vast stretch of eternity which has no beginning and no end; where measurements are based on the distance that light can travel in the space of a year; where the whole Earth is but a fleck of dust—it will be difficult for him to continue to believe that either he or his problems are so important. In the majestic quietness and the inconceivable bigness he will sense the presence of the Divine Power. Power at whose command all things move and all things cease to move.

A man need not be alone in his problems nor need he feel that there is no solution. To the Almighty all things are possible and His help is promised to each of us. All that He asks in return is that we believe in Him!

—JOHN EDGAR HOOVER, Director, FBI.

TODAY'S PRAYER
Let us give pause to meditate in our darkest hours; let us scan the firmament of night, regard the moon and stars, and know that He will dissolve the darkness to give us light. Amen.

Planning Board Lists Property For Industry

The Escanaba Planning Commission, in regular meeting Thursday night, recommended that two tracts of city-owned dock property between U. S. 2-41 and Sheridan road be made available for industrial use.

The commission has been requested by the city council to make a study of the 2,530 acres acquired by the city from the War Assets administration in 1946, and to draft plans for industrial, commercial and residential development in the area.

Last night it instructed the planning director, Robert Clayton, to make maps of the area, showing streets on the forty lines and area topography.

$65,000 Property

In recommending that the two tracts, the NE 1/4 of the SE 1/4 of Section 13 and the N 1/2 of the SW 1/4 of Section 18, be made available, the commission also recommended that the council give consideration to the types of industries locating on the west side of the highway in order to protect appearance of the approach to the city.

The Planning Commission indicated it will study the highway area and make definite recommendations, if the council so desires.

The recommendation to make the land available for industrial use is the first since the city acquired the property for $65,000. Several months ago the planning commission had picked three alternate sites for lease to an oil company, but the company took no action to obtain any of the three.

Veterinary Hospital

Two parcels of land in the ore dock purchase area are not owned by the city. Bark River Culvert company has a parcel north of the Chicago and North Western viaduct, abutting the C&NW right-of-way, and the C. G. Bridges estate owns a parcel across from the Bridges storage yard, running from the highway to the Escanaba and Lake Superior railway.

The culvert company obtained its property from the city prior to establishment of the Planning Commission, and the Bridges property was acquired in a trade with the city for some land needed by Harnischfeger Corporation. Both parcels are on the west side of the highway.

Dr. I. H. Wood of Escanaba, who plans to build a $25,000 veterinary hospital appeared before the commission last night to discuss location of the hospital, possibly in the ore dock purchase area.

Committees Appointed

In other business last night, the commission received an opinion from the city attorney holding that two amendments made to the zoning ordinance in 1948 and 1952 are legal, but took no action on a proposed recommendation to change side yard restrictions in residential areas. The commission has been studying regulations for attached and unattached garages and seeks to bring about equitable regulations for both.

Property owners in the area bounded by S. 5th and 8th Ave. and S. 19th and 23rd streets last night discussed precise plats of the area with the Planning Commission. The plat was tabled for further study.

Chairman Joseph Ivens last night appointed the following committees for the ensuing year:

Architectural — Dale Vinette, Charles Gessner, Larry Fleming, Capital Improvements — Charles Gessner, Dale Vinette, John Bartella, Industrial — Jesse Pomazel, John Bartella, Larry Fleming, Public Relations — Larry Fleming, Jesse Pomazel, Joseph Ivens, Recreation — Eldridge Baker, Dick Hoyer, Atty. William Anderson, Schools — Atty. William Anderson, Charles Gessner, Joseph Ivens, Sub-division — Dick Hoyer, Eldridge Baker, William Anderson, Traffic — Joseph Ivens, Eldridge Baker, Dick Hoyer, Zoning — John Bartella, Dale Vinette, Jesse Pomazel. On each, the first named committee member is chairman.

At the close of the meeting, Robert Clayton planning director, reported that the zoning survey of the city will be completed by the end of the month.

Detroit To Houghton Flights Begin April 4

North Central Airlines (formerly Wisconsin Central) has selected April 4 as the date to inaugurate service between Upper and Lower Michigan.

"This concludes four years of effort by the Airline to provide much-needed service between the cities of Upper Michigan and their principal cities of interest in the lower peninsula, particularly Lansing and Detroit," says Howard A. Morey, airlines president. "We have provided scheduled service to Upper Peninsula cities since Dec. 1, 1949, but heretofore have been unauthorized to serve them in the direction of their business and social interests," he adds.

For the first time, the cities of Upper and Lower Michigan will be connected with scheduled airline passenger, mail and express service. Flights will be routed via Green Bay, Wis., across Lake Michigan to Grand Rapids and Lansing, terminating at Willow Run Airport, Detroit. Upper Michigan cities now receiving North Central Service are Menominee, Escanaba, Iron Mountain, Marquette, Hancock and Houghton on one route and Ironwood on another.

Awarded by CAB

The new route was awarded North Central by the Civil Aeronautics Board last October. CAB proceedings which resulted in the new service were held in Marquette in Dec., 1950, where the Upper Peninsula cities and the airline actively participated to establish a "community of interest" with the cities of Lower Michigan.

In their decision, the Board Members, Oswald Ryan, Josh Lee, Joseph P. Adams and Chan Gurney, concurred that public convenience and necessity required amendments to the Airline's certificate to authorize local air transportation the terminal points of Hancock-Houghton and Detroit.

The new 286-mile segment to Detroit will increase North Central's overall route pattern to 2,573 miles.

Two Flights Daily

Initial service will consist of two round-trip flights a day to Hancock-Houghton, originating at Detroit.

A morning trip, to be designated as Flight 337-241, will leave Detroit at 8 o'clock and arrive at Hancock-Houghton at 1:16 p. m. (All times indicated are eastern standard.) The return trip, Flight 342, will leave Hancock-Houghton at 1:45 p. m. and arrive at Detroit at 6:53 p. m.

An afternoon trip, Flight 434, will leave Detroit at 12:30 and arrive at Hancock-Houghton at 5:32 p. m. The return trip, Flight 246-338 will leave Hancock-Houghton at 6:15 p. m. and arrive at Detroit at 11:37 p. m.

North Central will put two of its DC-3 transports in service on the new route. The twin-engine, 21-passenger "Northliners" will be based at Detroit.

Central High Fund $479,112

Bids for construction of the $1,100,000 Central High School in Escanaba will be called for within the next 60 days.

The Rev. O'Neill C. D'Amour, campaign executive chairman, said Friday the building fund now totals $479,112. He added that "pledge increases and new pledges are coming in at a rate which leads to the positive belief that we will pass the half million dollar mark by the end of this month."

Father D'Amour said school architect John E. Somerville is completing final revisions on the working drawings of the school. It is expected, he added, that plans will be ready for calling of bids within a few weeks.

Father D'Amour said the present fund total represents Catholic parishioner gifts in the amount of $469,762; pledges from Catholic school students in the amount of $2,855; $5,320 in pledges from Catholics living outside this region, and $1,175 from non-Catholic individuals and business firms.

He reported the "substantial number" of pledge increases by those who already had given to the fund is the result of an appeal to all parishioners to help gain the final 10 per cent of the campaign goal. Five per cent of the sum needed already has been gained.

Stanley R. Venne, campaign general chairman, expressed his satisfaction at the response of the Catholics of the parishes taking part in the campaign.

Father D'Amour and Mr. Venne made a joint statement thanking all who have worked, and are continuing to work—"and all who gave and are continuing to do so"—in the campaign.

Campaign headquarters reported the following breakdown, by parishes, of Catholic parishioner gifts:

St. Patrick, Escanaba	$123,585
St. Anne, Escanaba	56,044
St. Joseph, Escanaba	111,864
St. Thomas, Escanaba	38,482
All Saints, Gladstone	48,005
Holy Family, Flat Rock	19,435
Sacred Heart, Schaffer	14,736
St. Anthony, Wells	24,890
St. Charles, Rapid River	8,736
St. George, Bark River	17,543
St. Joseph, Perkins	2,500
St. Michael, Perronville	3,920

More Highways Are Weight-Restricted

Additional Upper Peninsula highways on which weight restrictions have gone into effect were announced today by the Michigan Highway Commission.

The roads are: M-69 from Ranville to junction with US-241; M-95 from Sagola north to junction with US-41; M-35 in Baraga County; US-41 in Keweenaw County from end of concrete to Phoenix to Copper Harbor; in Marquette County, all of M-95, M-28, M-35 and M-94.

Roads previously announced include: all of M-77, M-117, M-134 and M-48; M-28 from Newberry west to Shingleton; M-28 from Pelletier's Corners to Seney; all of M-94; all of M-28 in Schoolcraft County; all black-top in Chippewa County and the gravel from Rudyard west to the county line on M-48.

C-C Board Backs School Project

The board of directors of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce yesterday adopted a statement of endorsement of the proposal to construct a new elementary public school in the area approved by the Board of Education and the $250,000 bond issue to finance the project.

The statement follows: "Recognizing the need for a good school system in our community and realizing that adequate buildings as well as competent teachers are a necessity, the board of directors voted the board's approval to the building and bonding of a new grade school in the area approved by the Escanaba Board of Education."

The board approved plans for a town and country banquet, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, to be held April 7 at the St. Joseph hall. Walter J. Gries will be the principal speaker.

Farmers of Delta County will be guests of Escanaba businessmen at the banquet. The program was arranged by the agricultural committee of the Chamber.

The board also approved efforts of the Chamber of Commerce to encourage local citizens to become candidates for the city charter revision committee. Nominations must be in by five p. m. Tuesday, March 17. A charter revision commission of nine members will be created in the April 6 election if the voters approve.

We've got it!

New Holland's great new twine-tie baler

The NEW HOLLAND
Most compact baler ever built
Costs hundreds of dollars less!
The Surprise of a life time! That's the New Holland "66"! We'll wager you've never seen a baler so compact in design... so completely new — feature after feature.
You'll be amazed the first time you see the "66". It's shorter and lower than most balers of its type on the market. It's designed to operate at full efficiency with one- or two-plow tractor. Best of all, it's priced so low that now even small-acreage farms can afford the finest in baling equipment.
Now you can enjoy the full benefits of having your own baler. You can bale your hay the moment it's ready to come in. And in the field you'll find it hard to believe your eyes when you see how the "66" gobbles up the windrow. Nothing seems to stop it. It can kick out 6 firm, square bales a minute... package up to 7 tons of hay in an hour! And it bales anything — clover, prairie hay, sudan grass, maize.
Come in and see us right away! We're ready and waiting to show you a "66". We'd like to go over this wonderful grassland machine with you point by point... give you positive proof you can't buy better at the price!

A full line of balers!
The New Holland "66" proudly takes its place with the famous "77" twine-tie and the Mighty "80" wire-tie — with the highest capacity balers in the world. No matter what material you bale or what field conditions you work under, no matter whether you feed, sell or custom bale, there's a New Holland that can do the job faster, better and at lower cost. ## Falling Tree Kills Farmer

Peter Plouff, 40, of Flat Rock, died yesterday afternoon when a tree fell on him in the woods a mile west of Theoret's Corner. He was found by his nine-year-old son who had gone to meet him after school.

Plouff was pinned under a birch tree about 12 or 13 inches thick. He had cut down one tree which caught on another and failed to fall. When he chopped down the second tree the resultant crash of trees pinned him down, and the right side of his chest was crushed, said the returned sheriff, who investigated the accident with Dr. T. A. McNerney, coroner. Because his lunch pail was empty it was estimated he died sometime between noon and 4 p. m.

Born May 10, 1913 in Escanaba township, Plouff lived in Flat Rock all his life. He attended Escanaba township schools and Escanaba High School. Operator of a Flat Rock tavern eight years, for the last 10 years he was a farmer. He was a member of Holy Family Church, Flat Rock and of the Holy Name Society of that church.

He is survived by his wife, the former Lucille Charon; five children, Beverly, Luella, Bonnie, William, and Dale; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolore Plouff of Flat Rock; three sisters and four brothers, Mrs. Henry Richer, Escanaba; Mrs. William Guindon, Detroit; Mrs. William Beauchamp, Flat Rock; Arthur and Fred of Escanaba; and Adolore and Eugene of Flat Rock; and three half-brothers, Henry LaForest, Detroit; Albert and Octave LaForest of Flat Rock; and one half sister, Mrs. Aldrich Therian of Flat Rock.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Monday with the Rev. Gerald LaMothe officiating. Burial will be in the Escanaba township cemetery.

Friends may begin calling at the All Funeral Home at 8 p. m. Saturday. The rosary will be recited Sunday evening.

Paper Company To Get Safety Plaque

A safety plaque will be presented Monday night at a dinner in the Delta Hotel to A. G. Bennett, division manager of the Escanaba Paper Co., a subsidiary of the Mead Corp. The award signifies the company had the lowest accident frequency and time lost through accidents throughout the Mead Corp.

Talbot Mead, a vice president of the Mead Corp., will fly in Monday to present the plaque, which is called the George H. Mead Trophy.

W. J. "Tex" Reynolds, editor of the Racine, Wis. Journal-Times, will address the dinner on a topic connected with safety.

Corporation Safety Director Francis Wagner will be a guest. He will present National Safety Council pencils to 15 employees on the paper company's employee safety committee for 1952.

The safety committee for 1953 will be welcomed during the meeting.

Cattle Breeders To Meet In Courthouse

A U. P.-wide meeting of Brown Swiss dairy cattle breeders will be held Monday, March 16 in the county courthouse at 1 p. m. Joseph L. Heirman, county agricultural agent, revealed today.

Purpose of the meeting is to promote acceptance of the breed, Heirman said. The breeders meet about once a year.

Field Representative Stumbo of the Brown Swiss Breeders' Association will be present as will Jack Little, Michigan State extension dairyman in the U. P., Heirman stated.

Summer Projects For 4-H Recruits

Summer 4-H Club projects are available for Delta County boys and girls if they join a 4-H Club now, reminds Fred Bernhardt, county 4-H Club agent. 4-H boys and girls in this county are celebrating National 4-H Club Week, March 7 to 15, by urging new members to join groups and participate in many summer activities.

Livestock projects in dairy are open in both production and breeding classes, Bernhardt said. Poultry and rabbit raising projects are available, too. Crop activities slated for this summer include potatoes along with home and commercial vegetable gardening.

Projects are designed to help the boy or girl develop skill and "know-how" over a period of years. Beginning members learn the basics of farm or homemaking techniques and then progress to more advanced projects, Bernhardt explained.

Long-term projects such as small fruit production may still be started this year. Conservation, including reforestation and windbreak plantings, is another possibility in the agricultural field.

Food preparation and food preservation by freezing or canning are activities of interest to 4-H girls who join during National 4-H Club Week, he said.

See a 4-H Club leader or member or visit your county extension office, Postoffice Bldg., Escanaba, for information about becoming a 4-H Club member.

Plan April 1 Clinic For Bank Officials

Delta County bankers may attend an annual agricultural finance clinic in Kellogg Center of Michigan State College, East Lansing, April 1 and 2, Joseph L. Heirman, county agricultural agent, announced today.

Two of the main discussion topics will be "How to Build a Successful Public Relations Program" and "How to Judge a Sound Investment." Dr. O. F. Jesness, head of the division of agricultural economics of the University of Minnesota, will speak at a banquet the night of April 1.

A program for wives is being arranged. Programs and reservation cards will be sent out at a later date.

Cost Of New Elementary School Not A Hardship On Taxpayers

A property owner whose home has an assessed valuation of $2,000 will pay a maximum of $6 per year in additional taxes if the proposed elementary school construction program is adopted by the voters of the city on April 6. Those whose homes are valued for assessment purposes at $3,000 will pay $9 per year in additional taxes. By far the majority of homes in Escanaba are in this assessment valuation range, $3,000 or less.

Under the terms of the proposal being submitted to the voters, the maximum number of years for which the additional assessment could be made is 14 years.

In all probability, the three mill assessment provided by the bond proposal will be reduced to a 2.5 mills after a reserve fund has been created and the number of years in which collections will be made will be reduced. It is possible to pay off the indebtedness in nine years if collections are near 100% of the total levy.

These figures show conclusively enough that there are very few, if any, local property owners who cannot afford the additional taxes that the elementary school construction program will cost. For property assessed for $2,000, it is only 50¢ a month or less and for property assessed as much as $3,000, it is only 75¢ a month or less. Just about the cost of two or three packages of cigarettes.

Cities all over the United States are building new schools in recognition of the need for improved public educational facilities. Our need is at least as great as most of the cities which have already constructed new grade schools. It is our obligation to build them and our obligation to pay for them.

Other Editorial Comments

SCHOOL FINANCES (See Evening News)

Possibly there will be legislative action to relieve Sault Ste. Marie and other schools throughout the state from the embarrassing situation that exists. Some way undoubtedly will be found to solve the dilemma but the dilemma should never have existed.

As we understand the muddle, the Superintendent of Public Instruction advised the legislature last fall that a clause was necessary in the law pledging "full faith and credit of the school districts." This was not done. The legislature went ahead carelessly, Governor Williams signed the act and now arises the question as to the legality of the borrowing. Naturally legal questions must be cleared before funds are turned over to the schools.

Michigan is in process of getting out of its financial troubles. But it would seem that the schools are being made the goat inasmuch as there have been so many delays. Payments are promised in March some time but there is talk of too little being turned over to meet payrolls.

The legislature should cure these financial difficulties rapidly. It is preposterous to have a wealthy state like Michigan fail to meet its obligations. There has been untimely planning in the past. The future will be secure by rapid action. Let the legislators get busy.

A POSITIVE ATTACK (Christian Science Monitor)

The greatest threat to freedom of thought, inquiry, and expression in the world today is organized communism. But the subtlest weapon in the psychological arsenal of communism may be the argument that anti-communists must borrow Communist methods in order to fight the thing they hate.

The Ford Foundation has taken a bold step toward combating this double-headed monster. It has granted $15,000,000 to the newly organized Fund for the Republic to "support activities directed toward the elimination of restrictions on freedom of thought, inquiry, and expression in the United States, and the development of policies and procedures best adapted to protect these rights."

The wording may sound abstract, but the problem is as concrete as Miss Elysia Jones who teaches third grade and is reported to have been seen reading the New Republic. The great virtue of the proposed approach is that it is positive rather than negative. It takes the civil liberties basic to democracy and undertakes to study the danger to them from the threat of communism and from the "methods that may be used to meet the threat."

The groom always is called the lucky man. In some cases, maybe the girl's father is being overlooked.

Have you noticed how many people are talking about their colds? It would be a lot better if they'd keep them to themselves.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—In a private talk between President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles, the President flatly rejected any idea of making a deal with Russia to settle the cold war at the sacrifice of American principles.

The matter came up when Dulles and the President were drawing up the resolution on the subjugation of free peoples. The Secretary of State pointed out the possibility that the resolution might turn out to be the main stumbling block in the way of an armistice in the cold war.

If the Soviet leaders should offer to settle the cold war by dividing the world into the present spheres of influence, Dulles warned, then the President's resolution might make it awkward to talk terms.

Eisenhower bluntly replied that he would never enter negotiations with the Soviet leaders to compromise any of the principles of his resolution.

PROPAGANDA PROBLEMS

Eisenhower's alert new psychological warfare expert, C. D. Jackson of Fortune magazine, has been working late at night and most of Sunday trying to figure out moves to take advantage of Stalin's death.

Inside fact is that his efforts are frowned upon by the State Department, which opposes any propaganda boat-peeking at this time. The diplomats fear any move by the U. S. A. may drive the new leaders of Russia together rather than apart. Winston Churchill vigorously supports them in this view.

Real fact is that Stalin's death caught our foreign-policy planners completely unprepared. For several years George Kennan, ex-ambassador to Moscow and author of the Russian-containment policy, had talked about the momentous possibilities following Stalin's death. So had "Chip" Bohlen, the new ambassador to Moscow. But no concrete, comprehensive plan was ready.

This highlights the difficulties which the public doesn't understand and which Senator McCarthy apparently doesn't want to understand, regarding U. S. propaganda. Here are some of them:

Difficulty No. 1—The State Department is a policy organization, not an executive organization. Its men are supposed to be thinkers and planners, not doers. Operating radio stations, magazines, etc., is not in their line.

Difficulty No. 2—Yet the State Department must have the final power to censor official U. S. propaganda. Otherwise, the Voice of America and other propaganda agencies might be galloping off in various directions completely counter to official U. S. policy.

Difficulty No. 3—To get around this fact and the further fact that official U. S. propaganda must be far more cautious than unofficial propaganda, Radio Free Europe and Radio Free Asia were set up. However, it's now pretty well known in Europe, including Russia, that these two organizations are actually subsidized by the United States.

That's why Radio Free Europe has lost part of its effectiveness.

And if congressional investigators ever started probing Radio Free Asia they would find about $6,000,000 spent with little accomplished.

Radio Free Europe was a live-wire influential organization when C. D. Jackson, able chief of Ike's psychological warfare board, was in charge. But it's gone downhill since. For instance, here is a recent sample of Radio Free Europe's program beamed to Hungary on Feb. 15:

Explanation of Valentine's Day . . . U. S. A. spending $250,000,000 on Valentine's gifts . . . Bing Crosby records . . . story of a young ape escaped on roof of 6th Ave. house and rescued by New York firemen. Ape is a "publicity man" for local merchant and has wives in near-by pet shop . . . America and the superstition of Friday, Feb. 13 . . . story of crippled Boy Scouts . . . from Berlin, a German doctor gave advice against sports for men and women over 40 and recommended weight-reducing exercises.

PARADOXICAL BEETLE SMITH

General "Beetle" Smith, the astute undersecretary of state who is now ruling on the Voice of America, happens to be in a paradoxical position regarding propaganda. As former head of Central Intelligence Smith poured several millions into Radio Free Europe, which was partly competing with the Voice of America. Many State Department officials deeply resented that competition and the publicity buildup given it in the United States.

Today, as undersecretary of state, General Smith is on the other side of the propaganda fence, is a top boss of the Voice whose competitor he once subsidized.

All this points to the need of a complete overhauling of American propaganda; not merely a congressional witch-hunt to discover what Voice executives wrote when they were students in college. It also points to the need of a bona fide private committee of prominent American citizens, representing not merely business but labor, farmers, the service organizations, to push home to the Russian people the all-important fact that the American people do want peace.

There are times when individuals groups of Americans can act with more effectiveness than their government. And inasmuch as justifiable suspicion exists between Washington and the Kremlin, this may be a crucial moment when individual Americans could organize for the difficult, vitally important job of penetrating the iron curtain with people-to-people friendship.

BERLIN (NEA)—Refugees. An ugly word for this ugly century, revived again in Berlin. By the hundreds, by the thousands, a new flood has been loosed upon us, driven by the East German purges. It is backed up here in an unwholesome eddy due to delays in transport to the West.

Again the old familiar smell of the emergency camps, overcrowded, poorly ventilated.

Again the stares; eyes aimed blankly at an unknown tomorrow, still foggy over yesterday and the political purges that cast them out.

As you step between the rows of cots, of mattresses on the filthy floor, you almost feel ashamed of yourself.

You are too well dressed, too well fed—and you have no fear. In your pocket is a green symbol of what all the refugees of this century have sought and do seek; the passport of the United States.

It means something these Europeans, in their days, have never known. "Equality under God to work or worship or vote as you will . . . freedom from fear."

Corny words in New York or Chicago. Living words in Berlin today.

Winston Churchill, in the dark hours of the last war, eternally damned Adolf Hitler with magnificent simplicity:

"He has peopled the world with exiles."

That indictment, supported by the blank stares in Berlin, now convicts Red Russians.

Babies, tagged like so many pieces of terminal baggage, who will never again know one or both of their parents.

Young women, separated from their husbands, seeing them always in their imagination, imagining the whip strike, the jailer, the executioner.

Old couples, doomed by age to walk as strangers in a new world until the grave, uprooted from the little things they had learned to know and love, uprooted from habit.

How often have we seen all this in our time. Chinese fleeing before the Japanese war machine . . . Jews fleeing from Nazis . . . Hindus lining the oxcart paths, pushed by the religious fury of India . . . homeless Arabs stumbling across desert sands . . .

Correspondents are obligated to record these events in statistics; numbers registered, blankets delivered, serums injected, shelters found.

But beyond this are our own reactions—lifetime memories like malignant cancer.

A year and a world apart I recall two children, one yellow, one white, both about 11.

The first I saw in a Korean ditch. Next to the frozen body of a bearded patriarch was this small girl, sitting patiently, waiting for her grandfather to arise, to continue the flight.

We packed her in the jeep and delivered her to an Army hospital. Her feet were already so stiff you could jam a jack-knife in them and draw no pain.

Her home had been crushed by a wild shell; parents torn apart, grandfather the only other survivor. They had walked for three days until he just sat down and died.

The second child I saw this week also with grandfather, grandfather alive though feeble. They had been in line for six hours before a West Berlin charitable center.

The child, a boy, had only one shoe. The other lost, somehow, in the nervous flight. His parents arrested, the old man had brought him to American sanctuary, to hope.

Orient and Occident, the same story, the same everlasting theme: "Refugees."

So They Say

Actresses in New York and Chicago are considered to be just business girls and there is not much mixing of a girl's social and her business life.—Movie actress Carolyn Jones.

It's like shifting into low gear after you've been making 80.—Football player Ed Crowder on the death of the platoon system.

College deferments are postponements in the national interest, to complete college training. They must not become virtual exemptions.—Former manpower chief Mrs. Anna Rosenberg.

Democracy is not just something promulgated by law. It is also a question of conscience, of duty, and of discipline for each individual citizen.—Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito.

I don't think for a second that this country has to be dependent on an armament program to maintain a sufficient level of prosperity. Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks.

Dimness in the dance hall is not nearly as dangerous as dimness in the legislative hall—and that's for sure.—Bismarck, N. D., teen-ager Marcene Carlson protesting a state dancing-in-the-dark ban.

The whole of Asia is wide awake, resurgent and somewhat rebellious. This is a psychological problem and cannot be handled with guns.—India's Premier Jawaharlal Nehru.

I complain about the nerve of the Senate in trying to blame low prices on the Republicans, who have been in office 30 days, when for two years prices have been going down.—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio).

We Democrats must banish all bitterness. We have had too much of that leveled against ourselves to want to reply in kind and add to the total of hatred in our country.—Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D., Ill.).

Every year the British worker falls farther behind his American brother in the amount of real value he can turn out.—Harlan Cleveland, former Mutual Security Administration European specialist.

FREEDOM FROM FEAR—Thomas Jefferson said: "I have sworn upon the Altar of God eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man."

Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times, in a recent article titled "Must We Fear Freedom?" asks: "Are we as free to speak our minds today as 20 years ago? Is thinking and giving expression to thought as unrestricted as in the past? Many, I believe, will join me in saying 'No.' We base our judgments on the record."

Sulzberger's statements are contained in an article published by the Anti-Defamation League. They should be read with thoughtfulness, with consideration of the trend of the times, with an examination of legislative practices vitally affecting individual freedom in America.

Excerpts from Sulzberger's article follow.

OF COMMUNISM—"I believe that Russia presents us with a 'clear and present danger' and that the luxury of being an intellectual Communist or fellow traveler in this country is no longer sufferable."

"I believe with the late President Nielson of Smith College that it's wise to 'keep an open mind, but not so open that your brains fall out.'"

"So long as the rulers of the Kremlin insist upon conducting their affairs in the dark, behind an iron curtain, so long as they continue their aggressive acts, we are in my judgment fools if we credit them with aught but evil and their sympathizers with anything but 'fifth column' purposes."

TOTALITARIANISM—"Freedom cannot be trifled with—you cannot surrender it for security unless in a state of war and then you must guard carefully the methods of so doing."

"Totalitarianism from the left has never been more attractive to me than totalitarianism from the right, and 'never' includes those years when Moscow was fighting with us against a common enemy."

"In line with this view I would not knowingly employ a Communist on the news or editorial staff of the New York Times. On the other hand, I would not institute a witch hunt to determine if one such existed and thereby throw questioning and fear into an organization which can perform its function only if its milieu is one of calm and honest reflection and judgment."

PUBLIC OPINION—"My thesis is that we cannot have a good public opinion unless there is freedom of expression—freedom of expression in our schools, in our government, in our assemblies, in our press, in all walks and ways of life."

"I find no satisfaction as an American citizen when I read that a brochure entitled 'The E In UNESCO' (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) was permanently removed from the schools of Los Angeles after it had been acclaimed by the teaching profession."

"I do not hold my head any higher when I note that the Board of Education of Houston, Texas, voted not to permit students to participate in an annual contest conducted by the American Association for the United Nations. The U. N. had been attacked and the Houston Board of Education surrendered to the implications of that assault."

(Sulzberger cites other "capitulations" to pressures, unfounded accusations, rumors and anonymous accusers.)

DIVIDE AND CONQUER—"And so it goes. One begins to wonder whether this is still the 'land of the free and the home of the brave.'"

"There has been dropped upon utterance and upon thought a smoke screen of intimidation that dims essential thought and essential talk and begets a fog through which we wander uncertainly."

"Nor is it the super zealots who bother me so much in all of this—it is the lack of plain, old-fashioned guts on the part of those who capitulate to them."

"Surely, such actions must be of great aid and comfort to the Kremlin; these capitulators are, in effect, a sixth column which does not even require payment."

Sulzberger concludes with three suggestions for meeting the challenge of those who would control opinion and divide the American people:

First, let us keep strong; second, let us keep alert; and third, "Let us remember that we need spiritual unity in our land. We must not lock our minds with the key to prejudice. We cannot afford senseless fights—they are a luxury based on a security we do not possess."

Joe Parks has been thinking of asking the Reverend Passmore for a private conference, but can't make up his mind whether it's his conscience or indigestion that's bothering him.

The Doctor Says . . . Rupture Of Vertebral Discs May Need Surgery If Severe

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

A number of readers have asked for information concerning a condition known as ruptured intervertebral disc, what it comes from, and whether recovery is possible without an operation.

This is a good question, since a ruptured disc is one of the most common and unpleasant causes of backache. It is not, however, as has been pointed out many times in this column, the only cause for backache.

First, what is a disc? The intervertebral disc is a moderately soft cartilage which lies between the bony vertebrae of the spine.

It is these cartilages which make it possible to bend the back—in other words, they give it flexibility. However, since cartilage is softer than bone, the discs are more likely to be injured, strained or otherwise damaged than the bony vertebrae themselves.

When there is pain in the lower portion of the back or down the course of the sciatic nerve along the back of the leg, a rupture or hernia of this cartilage must be suspected.

Diagnosis is not easy, but can usually be made by a careful study of the history of the pain—that is, whether it followed an injury, and similar information obtained from the patient—by the physical findings, and by what can be seen in an X-ray film.

The X-ray, however, may not show anything immediately after the rupture has occurred. After a while, however, the rupture of a disc will cause a narrowing of the space between the bones of the vertebral column at the point where the rupture has occurred.

Usually those having a first attack of pain caused by a ruptured disc should be treated conservatively (without surgery). Also, conservative treatment is advised for those who have mild attacks, attacks coming only at long intervals, for those who are over 50 years old, and for those in whom the diagnosis is in doubt.

For patients with intolerable back pain or pain along the sciatic nerve, those who have repeated severe attacks for a long period of time, and for some others, an operation has to be considered.

TWO TYPES OF SURGERY

The operation employed in such cases may be removal of the ruptured disc, or a fusion or binding together of the two vertebral bones between which the disc lies. The question of which of these operations to perform and whether or not it should be done by an orthopedic surgeon or a nerve surgeon or both together is a matter, of course, which the physicians in charge alone can decide.

It is only comparatively recently that it has been known that ruptures of this kind could occur. But this discovery and knowledge that most patients can be successfully treated surgically has given relief to thousands who would otherwise have suffered for years with intolerable pain.

Governor Signs Cash Relief Bill

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams signed into law today the Higgins bill, advancing the due date of the corporation franchise tax from August to May and starting $35,000,000 toward the distressed state treasury.

A number of large corporations reportedly have promised to pay $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 immediately to help the state's cash position and relieve financial distress among public school districts awaiting laggard state aid payments.

Williams signed the bill despite "misgivings."

Former Actress, 62, Murdered In Closet At Burbank, Calif.

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Her hands trussed behind her back and her head crushed, the body of 62-year-old former actress Mabel Monahan was found in a closet of her home here yesterday.

She had been dead for several days, police said. The house was ransacked and bloodstains were found in almost every room.

Mrs. Monahan, a widow for about six years, apparently was reading when her attacker sur-

Don't Hide Hopeless Illness From Patient, Neurologist Advises

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When a doctor discovers that a patient is fatally ill, should he tell him?

Yes, says Dr. Philip J. Vogel, even if the patient is neurotic—a chronic worrier.

"If you don't tell him," Vogel added, "he will develop an anxiety which is worse than the fear of death."

The present trend, Vogel said, is away from the policy of hiding the grim facts from victims of hopeless ailments. In nearly every case, he said, they will suspect that something is being withheld from them. As this suspicion grows, they will lose faith in the doctor and in all those around them who have been aiding the deception.

Minimize Shock

Vogel, a Pasadena, Calif., neurologist, appeared on a panel discussing hopeless prognosis at the alumni convention of the College of Medical Evangelists. He is head of the college's department of neurosurgery.

Complete candor does not necessarily require bluntness, he conceded, and patients can be told the truth in a kindly way which minimizes the shock and leaves them with some measure of hope.

"Oddly enough, most patients so advised do not stop fighting," he said. "Even neurotics have been known to lose their neuroses completely upon learning that they are going to die."

Time To Prepare

"There is an ethical as well as a medical reason for the truth," Vogel added. "A person fatally ill has the right to put his affairs in order and to adjust the rest of his life to his own liking. The average physician has found that the most difficult task in such cases is not handling the patient but handling the relatives. Relatives are inclined to insist that the truth be withheld."

The only cases wherein withholding the truth is justified are those of children, very old persons and persons mentally incapable of comprehending, he said.

VA Aids 800,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans Administration said today more than 800,000 persons consulted its 66 regional offices over the nation during a 20-day period in January, according to a special survey.

The agency said they wanted advice on such things as veterans' benefits, home loans and GI schooling.

Reds Uncover Group Of Anti-Communists

HONG KONG (AP)—The Shanghai Communist Liberation Daily reported recently the Public Security Bureau of the municipal government had uncovered a Chinese Nationalist underground resistance organization.

The Red paper said three leaders of the Shanghai "Anti-Communist Fraternal Society" were executed. Two more were sentenced to death but the sentences were deferred for two years. The victims were said to be "agents of Chiang Ching-kuo," eldest son of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

American Driver Mexican Menace

By JACK RUTLEDGE
MEXICO CITY (AP)—A Mexican taxi driver says he avoids American drivers. You never know what they'll do, because most of them can't read the Mexican highway or street signs.

"An American driver who can't read Spanish traffic signs is just as dangerous as someone who can't read at all," says the taxi driver.

U. S. traffic experts will tell you he has a good point. An illiterate motorist who doesn't know what "stop" and "danger" mean can get into a lot of trouble.

Tens of thousands of American tourists will visit Mexico this spring and summer, most of them by automobile. For these tourists, here's an A-B-C on the more important traffic signs they'll see:

"Alto" means "stop" and it's usually a good idea to do just that when the sign says so.

"Peligro" means "danger," and is generally seen near road construction work, or a bad spot on the highway.

"Poblado proximo" is a warning that a town is near.

"Escuela" means "school" and don't get the idea that school isn't in session just because it's summer. Most Mexican schools take their long holidays in November, December and January.

"Curva" means "curve" and "codo" means "sharp turn." Incidentally, "despacio" means "slow." "Camino sinuoso" is "winding road" and is a sign you'll see often between Tamazunchale and Mexico City, where the highways are cement pretzels.

Columnist Writes His Own Obituary, Dies In Mt. Clemens

MT. CLEMENS (AP)—Rodney A. Waterbury, an 80-year-old columnist for the Mt. Clemens Monitor-Leader, died yesterday following a heart attack—just as a self-written obituary predicted.

Waterbury's "Way Back When" appeared once a week in the Monitor-Leader. Yesterday the column had been set for publication. An hour later, a relative delivered the handwritten obituary which had been drafted last week.

The obituary was handwritten because the former reporter preceded the typewriter age in journalism.

All the details were there. Waterbury was born in Central Nassau, N. Y. In childhood he moved to Ionia, Mich. He served as a reporter on the Cheboygan Democrat in 1890, the Grand Rapids Herald as a printer in 1892; and on the Cedar Springs Clipper, a weekly newspaper, in 1897.

Waterbury became a businessman in Mt. Clemens and in 1932 joined the staff of the new defunct Daily Leader.

He started his weekly column in 1942 when the Daily Leader folded.

Sen. Ferguson Wants Money For Soo Lock Authorized In 1946

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) wants the Army Engineers to replace the Poe Lock at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Ferguson wrote Maj. Gen. Samuel D. Sturgis, Jr., chief of engineers, that replacement of the lock "has become increasingly necessary each year." It was built in 1881.

Congress authorized a new lock in 1946, but hasn't appropriated any money for it, and Ferguson said he understands the engineers do not plan to ask Congress to vote money "for a number of years."

He urged Sturgis to re-evaluate the engineers' position.

Robber Gets Death In Theft Of $1.50

ATLANTA (AP)—Howard Leroy Booker, 33, was sentenced Wednesday to die May 1 in the electric chair for a robbery that brought him only $1.50 and two streetcar tokens.

Mrs. Sarah Babbitt, 28, testified the defendant dragged her into a tangled thicket, "beat, stomped and cut" her and fled with her purse containing the small sum of money and the two tokens.

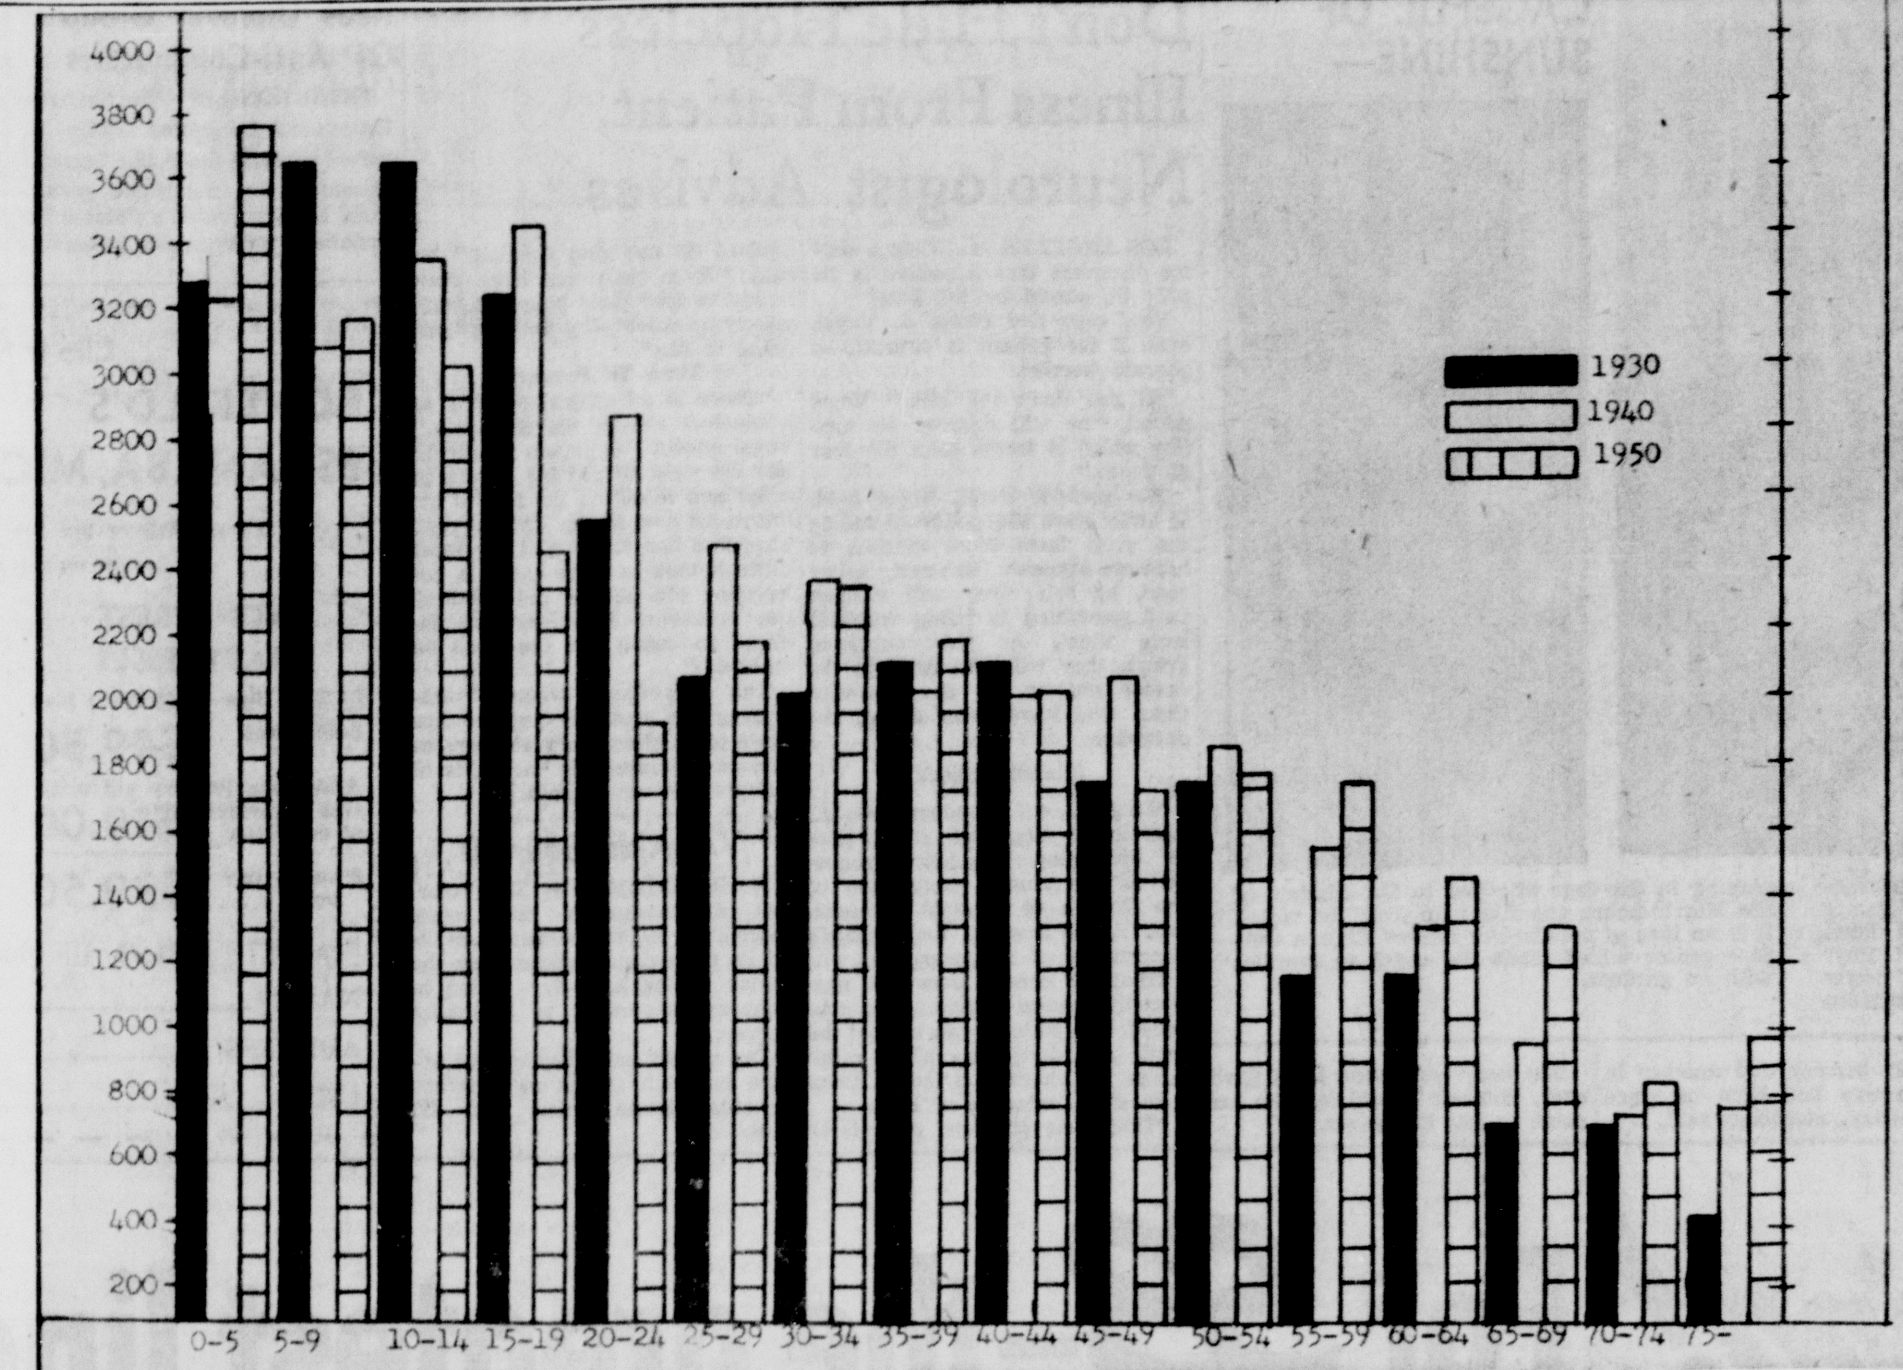

Court officials said it was the second time in the history of Atlanta courts that the death sentence has been given for armed robbery.

Dolls Fashion Show Held In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—A fashion show for dolls was held at the Hotel Pierre recently in which the dolls were presented in frocks created especially for them by many of America's leading designers.

The show was a benefit for the Spence-Chapin Adoption School and part of the admission fee was the donation of a doll of any size, shape or value to be sold at a later benefit.

The dolls had hairdos arranged by the designers' favorite hairdressers and they were carried by manikins similarly dressed.

POPULATION AGING — This graph of Delta County population age groups from the last three censuses indicates that there has been a steady increase in the number of persons over 55 during the 30-year span. The figures, assembled by the Delta-Menominee Health department, also show the "bulge" in the population due to the increased birth rate in the post-World War II period.

Jet Guard Circles Southern Japan By Day And By Night

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
AN AIRBASE IN SOUTHERN JAPAN (AP)—Forty-five minutes from Shanghai, U. S. jet interceptors circle Southern Japan by day and night, like hornets defending their nest.

Here on Japan's southernmost island of Kyushu, you do not feel the same tenseness as there is among Japan Air Defense Force (JADF) pilots on the far northern island of Hokkaido, where U. S. jet pilots have chased and battled Russian planes.

Down here no potentially hostile aircraft have been sighted. But the continuing watch by plane and radar is just as elaborate and careful.

Radar stations track an average of 35,000 planes in flight every month. Their reports are fed to a big war room at this base.

A miniature semaphore on a huge table map in the war room marks every sighted plane. A dozen men with earphones connected to radar sites keep pace with the plane's movement.

If any plane is not identified after it is spotted by radar, alarm bells start ringing.

Pilots of the F94 Starfire interceptors sprint for their planes and whoosh into the sky.

In any weather the Starfire interceptors can be seen to intruding planes. Its radar locks on a target plane. When the F94 reaches the proper distance its guns are fired automatically by radar at the target.

Draft Will Exempt Commercial Fishermen As Food Producers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Commercial fishermen and other skilled workers "essential to the production of substantial quantities of fishery commodities" are going to be exempted from the armed services draft.

That was the word passed along by Secretary of the Interior McKay, who said his information came from Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service.

McKay quoted a bulletin by Hershey as saying:

"Since food has its source in commercial fishing as well as in agriculture, the principles of agricultural manpower shall be applied in the classification of registrants engaged in the commercial fishing industry."

The Brooklyn-Battery tunnel, New York City, is 9117 feet long, and is the second longest underwater vehicular tube in the world.

Lock At Soo Goes On Standby Basis For Early Shipping

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—One of the four Soo Locks will be placed on a standby basis Sunday in anticipation of early traffic in the 1953 navigation season.

Supt. Clifford Aune at the Locks said that the Sabin Lock will be ready to handle freighters this weekend.

The earliest one of the Soo Locks has opened was March 1, 1942.

Aune said that the other three locks will be put in operation when traffic demands.

Skippers and chief engineers of large American freighter fleets are not expected to move traffic through the locks until after meeting March 24-25 in Cleveland.

The Canadian freighter Scott Misener opened the locks season last year on April 2.

Meanwhile, a recent cold wave in the upper Great Lakes area has slowed somewhat an early break-up of ice-bound Lake Superior, according to the Navy Branch Hydrographic office here.

Canadian pilots have observed the western quarter of Lake Superior is well-filled with sealed ice, the Navy said.

W. W. Oak meteorologist in charge of the Detroit Weather Bureau, reported solid ice up to 15 inches in some harbors and rivers in the Upper Peninsula area.

The lower St. Marys river and Soo harbor were reported frozen 10 inches thick.

Open water was reported from Pipe Island to Lake Huron.

Shamrock, Mo., Gets Green Stamp Stocks

SHAMROCK, Mo. (AP)—The St. Patrick's Day mail from Shamrock will be a wearin' the green after all.

Earlier this week Postmaster W. S. Armstrong said he had been unable to obtain enough green commemorative stamps for the annual St. Patrick's Day rush next Tuesday.

But the nearby Fulton postoffice came to the rescue with 200 stamps commemorating the organization of Washington Territory. They are green ones, too.

Armstrong thinks that will be enough to tide him over, since many of the covers already bear postage.

American Woman Is Quite A Gal, Yale Expert Says

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

In case you hadn't noticed it, the U. S. woman is quite a gal, says Fenton B. Turk, New York consultant engineer, founder of a lecture series at Yale and author of assorted technical works.

Mrs. U. S. A. is head of the country's multibillion-dollar family industry, chief buyer of food, fashions and housing for her brood, holder of the purse-strings, controller of wealth—and a slick-looking babe, to boot.

Travels More

The American woman has changed a lot in the last 13 years—and all for the better, says Turk, who occasionally enjoys turning his analytical mind to things other than mathematical equations. Here are some of the things that have happened to her since 1940:

She travels three times as much. She reads twice as much, as evidenced by the circulation growth of home and women's magazines; thus she has acquired a startling amount of assorted information, which she employs in improving her looks, her taste, her cuisine, her home decoration and her family's health.

She has more time, having acquired the household appliances which take over the drudgery of housework.

With her extra time she takes a more active part in extra-curricular activities such as politics, clubs, concerts, the theater and allied arts.

She spends more time on her appearance, and manages to look like a million, no matter what the size of her income.

Spends More

She's healthier, better-looking and more interesting than she was in 1940—far ahead of her mother and grandmother on all counts. Says Turk:

"This is the golden age for American women."

You can't talk down to "the little woman" any more, says this perceptive engineer. She knows more about more subjects than her mother ever dreamed of. She knows what she wants and how much she wants to pay for it.

She spends twice as much time shopping as she did in 1940, says Turk, because she is just that much more particular, and keeps looking until she finds exactly what she's looking for, at the right price.

She's causing a slow revolution in retailing, which eventually, he believes, will have to adopt the super-market self-service technique in all fields.

Today's woman is going to change the course of U. S. industry and business. Horse-and-buggy methods no longer can sell this new super-woman.

She's the expression of a new era, and business will have to run to keep up with her.

Street Lighting Request Okehed

A group of South Gladstone residents appeared before the City Commission this week requesting more street lighting in that section of the city.

The commission approved additional lighting as soon as possible and requested the light department to report on new installations for this year and what other new lighting was planned.

A second group appeared requesting electric service to homes in the Mashek-Buckbee addition on top the bluff at South Gladstone. Four houses at present desire service. The matter was referred to the light department for cost estimates on the installation.

An ordinance was introduced to permit placing of delinquent water accounts as special assessments against the owners of the property served. This is designed to assist in collecting water accounts on rental properties. Public hearing will be held on Monday, March 23.

A request by city employees that the City of Gladstone pay for Hospital-Surgical Insurance for them and their families was received and the matter tabled for future consideration when the budget is being considered. Cost would be in the neighborhood of $2700 it was stated.

Paul Louis, clerk in the city office, was appointed to assist City Manager H. J. Henriksen with detail work in his office.

First president of the Legion Auxiliary was the late Mrs. Fred Monroe.

The Manistique post was first called the Gaylord P. Leach post but the name was later changed when members were unable to determine whether Leach or George Swingle were the first Schoolcraft County soldiers to die in action in World War I. Both men were killed the same day.

Present Legion commander is Oliver Edwards. Mrs. Rhoda Ekberg is present head of the auxiliary.

Over 100 Attend Bowling Banquet Wednesday Night

Over a 100 Elks attended the annual mid-winter bowling banquet Wednesday evening at the Elks temple, Walnut St.

Members of winning teams during the first half of bowling were guests at the event.

NO PIGMENT

There is no white pigment in white animals. The white color is like that of snow; simply the reflection of light from minute surfaces.

Practice Shoot Next Wednesday Night Cancelled

A scheduled Manistique Rifle and Pistol Club practice shoot at the National Guard armory next Wednesday night, March 18, has been cancelled, it is announced by Arthur Hough, president.

Annual federal inspection of the local Guard company necessitated the cancellation Hough said.

Wednesday night practice shoots will be resumed on March 25.

The annual monthly banquet will be held Sunday, March 29. Details of the event will be announced later.

Members of the gun club and the Schoolcraft County Sportsmen's Club will have an inter-club rifle shoot Sunday afternoon, March 15.

Social

Study Club

The Tuesday Study Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Earl H. LeBrasseur, 322 Range St.

Mrs. J. E. Chauvin reviewed the book, "Postmark, Moscow," by Lydia Kirk.

Miss Goldie Piroch and Miss Eloise Hindman were guests of the club.

Birthday Party

Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McEachern, of Cooks, was honored recently with a party at the home of her parents in observance of her 11th birthday anniversary.

Games were played during the afternoon and prizes were given. Refreshments were served later to the 12 guests attending.

Linda received many gifts.

Senior Debaters To Enter Contest

Two senior members of Manistique high school's championship debate team will participate in the Detroit Free Press scholarship contest next Tuesday and Wednesday, March 17 and 18, in Ann Arbor, it is announced by Marvin Frederickson, debate coach.

The two seniors, Laura Pizzala and Nicholas Babaladeli, will leave Monday for Ann Arbor accompanied by their coach and the two other members of the debate team, Mary Ella Giovannini and Jon Schuster. They will return Thursday.

Approximately 16 top senior debaters of Michigan will take part in the contest which will be conducted on an elimination basis over the two day period. The group will be reduced on Tuesday to six contestants who enter the finals Wednesday.

Tuesday's competition will be in the form of written examinations and extemporaneous speaking. On Wednesday a regular debate pattern will be followed.

City Briefs

Mrs. Paul Knuth, 124 Weston Ave., is a surgical patient at the McLaren General Hospital in Flint. Mrs. Ira Crawford, S. Cedar St., has returned from a month's trip to Florida.

Mrs. Adolph Sandberg, S. Cedar St., has left for Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., to visit her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer.

Mrs. Anthony Wilker has returned to her home at 102 Main St., after being a medical patient at the Schoolcraft Memorial hospital.

Thanks Drivers Who Took Hockey Boys To Escanaba

Appreciation to local persons who recently transported junior hockey players to Escanaba is expressed by the City Recreation Commission in a letter written by T. H. Reque, director.

Local junior hockey players were taken to Escanaba to see a game between the Escanaba Hawks and Portage Lake. They were accompanied by their coach, Ed Broughton, who also plays on the Hawks team.

Those who provided transportation were Carl Carlson, William Larson, Malcolm Nelson and Dr. E. J. Brenner. Only five telephone calls were required to get transportation, Reque said.

"To me it seems that such spontaneous goodwill and interest in our young hockey players should go unnoticed," the recreation director pointed out in his letter. "These men gave hours of time and at some sacrifice to make this one of the highlights of the winter for these boys. It is wonderful to know that the local dads are so interested in boys and in hockey. These men have gained new, if noisy, friends, and hockey in Manistique given a wonderful boost through their general effort."

"The boys tell me the hamburgers were free as well."

THOSE IN UNIFORM

Cpl. Robert Rozich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rozich, 215 N. Cedar, Manistique, Mich., is returning to the U. S. from Japan for release from active Army duty. He was a chaplain's assistant with the 382d General Hospital in Kanakoa. The 382d cares for casualties of the Korean fighting, many of whom are flown directly from the front lines to an airstrip near the hospital.

Hawks Win NM Hockey League Playoff Berth

Dash Marquette Hopes In Semifinals By 4-3

DEE ICE STILL SOFT
HOUGHTON — (Special)—The third and deciding Northern Michigan league semifinal hockey game between Portage Lake and Calumet, scheduled to have been played here tonight, has been postponed to Sunday because of soft ice at Houghton's Dee Stadium. If this game is played, the final playoff series with Escanaba likely will start Tuesday. If the ice gives way in Escanaba and the Copper Country, the entire best-of-five series probably will be played on Marquette's artificial ice.

By Press Staff Writer
MARQUETTE — Escanaba's Hawks wrote a climatic chapter in their brief history in the Northern Michigan Hockey league by qualifying for the best-of-five championship finals against the Portage-Calumet winner with a brilliant 4-3 triumph over the Marquette Sentinels here last night. The paid attendance was 2260.

The victory climaxed a semifinals series bid that saw the plucky Hawks barely lose a 4-3 thriller in Marquette in the opener last Sunday and then keep their championship hopes alive by stopping the Sentinels, 3-2, in Escanaba last Tuesday.

And as Frank Merriwell himself would have written the script, it was a do-or-die and come-from-behind effort that turned the trick and boosted the Hawks into the championship finals for the first time.

Three-Year Climax
In its first two seasons in the fast NM circuit, Escanaba had finished the regular season strong but had never got over the semifinal hurdle. Last night's great effort against a strong and even-dangerous Marquette sextet climaxed a three-year struggle for top league honors.

The Hawks will go and go the limit—as they always do—against either Portage Lake or Calumet in the finals. A championship in its third year in the league would be nothing to scoff at! But the big one in the books was last night's win.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

One of the best amateur boxing shows ever presented in the Upper Peninsula is promised at Manistique on Saturday, March 28. Coach Ed Toyra's Manistique mitts will provide most of the opposition for fighters from Milwaukee, Escanaba, Menominee-Marquette and Marquette. . . . Some top-notch competition from Milwaukee is being sought for Manistique's open division champions who stand head and shoulders above the rest of the Upper Peninsula boxers.

And an old favorite in Manistique and Escanaba, Francis Selling, will be back in action after an absence of a year. . . . Selling has returned from Lower Michigan and will be matched with a Milwaukee scrapper. . . . Now down to 139 pounds, Selling last year was the U. P. open division welterweight champion and won a title in the Milwaukee tourney. . . . He was eliminated in the Chicago Tournament of Champions. . . . Other leading fighters from Manistique who will meet Milwaukee boys on the program are Harvard Lancour, U. P. and Wisconsin open featherweight champ; Jim Gould, scrappy novice bantamweight, and Wayne Tufnell, last year's Milwaukee open lightweight champ who lost in the finals this year.

Fred Boddy of Escanaba and Paul Hinkson of Manistique won honorable mention on the Detroit Free Press All-State Class B selections published last week. . . . Bob Sharland of Ishpeming landed a first team berth.

St. Louis Browns May Be Moved To Baltimore

By JOE REICHLER
SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Baltimore—one of the original major league cities and the one that spawned Babe Ruth—appeared today to have a good chance of returning to the big time—if a transfer of the St. Louis Browns is approved. It has been an open secret since the start of the spring training season that Bill Veeck would like to get the Browns out of St. Louis because they have not been drawing. Milwaukee generally was regarded as the logical city to get the franchise if it were shifted. But in less than 12 hours, the entire picture changed and President Will Harridge of the American League finally admitted negotiations have been going on for the transfer of the Browns from St. Louis to Baltimore.

Far From Settled
"But I don't think they are anywhere near the closing stage," he told The Associated Press. "If Veeck received approval of Jack Dunn (president of the Baltimore club of the International League) to move the Browns to Baltimore, it will still have to be approved by both the International and American Leagues."

"Right now I would say it was in the discussion stage. There is nothing definite about it. It can happen, though."

He added that if the details can be worked out and everything is properly arranged, it would not be too difficult to make the franchise shift before April 14, start of the major league season. He also said he thought a decision would be made one way or the other by Monday.

Sports Writers Meet
The American League has scheduled a party for sports writers at Clearwater, Fla., on Monday and Harridge advised the Associated Press to have a representative there. He declined to go beyond that.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, reached at Belaire, Fla., said there was nothing to prevent an immediate transfer provided all parties were satisfied.

"However," he said, "I have nothing before me asking for approval of a franchise shift of any kind."

Asked about his statement of last week in which he said it would be impossible to make a shift now, Frick said he was referring only to the Milwaukee situation.

Dunn, the Baltimore president, admitted he had been "approached" on the deal.

"I've been working hand in hand with others, but right now I'd say it is premature," he said. "It is not impossible, but I wouldn't say it is definite at this time."

Veeck, the party of the other part, was not available at an early hour. He was reported en route to St. Petersburg, Fla.

Apparently the negotiations were a well kept secret until yesterday when a high baseball official told The Associated Press the switch from St. Louis to Baltimore was probable and that it might come by Monday.

He said under the plan, the Baltimore club would be moved to Toledo, which, until last year, had a franchise in the American Association. The club was moved to Charleston, W. Va., in the Central League during the '52 season.

The first official to admit that the transfer was in time talking stage was Mayor Thomas d'Alaisandro of Baltimore. He said negotiations had been going on for "some weeks."

Mayors Speak
D'Alaisandro obviously—and understandably—was reluctant to play all the way and a tight defense in front of Big Ben Artwisch, who likewise came through with a brilliant game.

Provo Scores Winner
Escanaba trailed all the way until the 4:12 mark in the third period. Burt Petaja, who has been a great help to the Hawks throughout the series, netted the tying goal on a pass from Mark Olson while Bucky O'Neill was serving time for tripping.

And at 15:50, Buddy Provo, Escanaba's home grown hockey player, sent the rubber disc into the high left hand corner after taking a pass from the same Petaja. It was a shot from eight feet out in front with three minutes left to play that sent Escanaba fans into an uproar.

Marquette led 1-0 going into the second and 3-2 going into the final, but Escanaba blanked the high-skating Sentinels and Petaja and Provo scores turned out to be the big ones. Provo's score was particularly delectable to Eskey fans because Linesman Fred Brunelle had nullified a previous Escanaba tie-breaking score. He called an offside on a Petaja-Olson breakaway when the Hawks had only three men on the ice to four for Marquette. Petaja's tally was not counted.

Great Team Effort
A defeat in the "rubber" game last night would have ended the season right then and there, as it did for Marquette in its tremendous effort this season to annex the Northern Michigan league championship—something it has never done in its long history of NM hockey warfare.

Of course, there was sparkling individual play, but in all it was a great team effort that netted the Hawk win.

In three years, the Hawks have established a reputation of never giving up. No matter what the odds against them, whether on home ice or away, the Hawks have always kept plugging to the final siren.

They did it again last night and it paid off—even against the big disadvantage of playing away from home. To chalk up this big win, however, they combined with the do-or-die effort an accurate passing attack, headsup

Webster Sparkles
Jim Eady scored on Ted Boesler's assist at 4:20 to break the ice in the opener. Gail Lawrence beat Artwisch at 5:14 in the second for a 2-0 Marquette lead, but Len Webster, who turned in one of his finest scoring as well as skating and stick handling performances of the season, cut the margin to 2-1 at 8:27 on Jim Ogle's assist. Joe Ricci started the play in center ice.

Roy Olson stole the puck at 10:10 in the second period and scored unassisted to make Marquette's margin 3-1, but again Webster kept the Hawks right in the thick of the fight.

At 15:36 in the second, he came through with the finest individual scoring effort of the night. Picking up the rubber deep in his own defensive zone, he sashayed and feinted his way through the whole Marquette team, crossing the latter's blue line from left to right, and climaxed it with a clean beat on Goalie Jim DeMarinis from about 12 feet out.

Big Penalty Load
As was true in the first two playoff games, Escanaba carried the biggest penalty load, 10 minors to six minors for Marquette. In the first game, it was 7-2 Escanaba and last Tuesday, it was 5-1 Escanaba—a total of 22 penalties for Escanaba and nine for Marquette in the entire series.

Despite high stakes and hard caliber of play, the game was not unusually rough. Mark Olson and Jim Eady had one flareup in the second period, and Jim Swenor and Hubert Hamilton were roughing it up at the finish.

Summary:

talk and at first declined to comment. Then he reconsidered and issued a statement which said: "I can't confirm or deny the announcement that Baltimore is returning to big league baseball through the transfer of the St. Louis Browns here. However, I have been participating in negotiations for some weeks...to bring the Browns here. We had hoped to make a formal announcement within the next few days. But to say more at this time might jeopardize the whole venture."

Mayor Joseph M. Durst of St. Louis termed the projected transfer an "outrage."

Nahma And Powers Win Regional Openers

Arrows Topple Bates By 60-43

HOUGHTON — The defending Upper Peninsula and state Class E cage champions from Nahma moved past little Bates with no trouble here last night, winning by a 60-43 margin, and will meet Marenisco for the regional crown Saturday afternoon at 2.

Coach Harold "Babe" Anderson's Nahma Arrows moved into the regional finals for the third straight year with ease, scoring first and leading Bates, a two-year high school located just outside of Iron River, all the way.

Never In Trouble
Although off form by previous standards, Nahma's well-balanced attack kept the defending champions out of trouble throughout the game. Coach Donald MacDonald's Bates was unable to match the sharpshooting Arrows who won the Class E crown last year and lost to Michigamme in the finals in 1951.

Nahma jumped out to a 15-10 lead at the end of the first period and stretched it to 31-15 by half-time. Wendell Roddy, starting guard, paced the Nahma attack in the first half. He finished with 17 points to share snoring honors with Pete Lindbeck of Bates.

Bates Star
Lindbeck, a 6-4½ center weighing 240 pounds, kept Bates in the ball game along with Carl Benson who chipped in 14 points for the losers. Six other Bates cagers contributed only 12 points.

Roddy received valuable scoring assistance from three of his mates. Jim Popour clicked for 14 and Bernard Newhouse and Donald Groleau 10 each.

Nahma will meet Marenisco in the Class E finals here Saturday. Marenisco handed favored National Mine a 65-57 defeat in the second game last night.

The games were played before a large crowd at Michigan Tech's huge Sherman gymnasium.

Only Unbeaten Team
Manistique is in the final round for the first time in a number of years. Coach Rudy Brandstrom's Emerald quints has the distinction of boasting the lone undefeated Upper Peninsula season record.

Competition is tough for both quints. The Trojans take on the Bessemer Speed Boys at Houghton at 7 tonight. The Emeralds tackle the Menominee Maroons in the Class C opener at Negaunee's Memorial gym at 7.

Bessemer's current quint, coached by Pete Fusi of Michigan State College grid fans, is built around a towering center who stands six feet, seven inches. Jim Beissel, Speed Boy pivotman, is the tallest high school cager currently operating in the U. P.

13-3 For Trojans
The Speed Boys enter the C tourney with 13 wins and four losses. St. Joe has a record of only three defeats in 18 starts.

Menominee gained the Class B regional tournament by drubbing Stephenson and edging Escanaba in the district at Stephenson. The Emeralds sailed through their district tournament over Munising and Newberry.

Winners of tonight's semifinal regional tests will play for the U. P. championship in both classes at 8 Saturday.

Boston Holds Wings To 2-2 Hockey Tie

(By The Associated Press)
Boston stopped the champion Detroit Red Wings' victory surge in the National Hockey League at eight straight Thursday night.

The Bruins didn't beat Detroit but they did gain a 2-2 tie.

The playoff positions remain the same since second place Montreal and third place Chicago also played a 2-2 tie. Fourth place Boston now has a three point edge over fifth place Toronto and both club have six games left.

St. Joe, Manistique Open Regional Action

The regional tournament trail starts for two area teams tonight at widely separated points in the Upper Peninsula. The St. Joe Trojans of Escanaba step to the line in the Class C title tourney at Houghton and the Manistique Emeralds begin the battle for Class B honors at Negaunee.

For Coach Tom St. Germain's St. Joe cagers this is an old story. They've been in the regional competition the last two years, and both times they've won semifinal games but lost in the championship.

Pfeiffer Beers Hit 3181 Score

CHICAGO (AP)—A sensational 3181, third highest series in the 50-year history of the American Bowling Congress, put the defending champion Pfeiffer team of Detroit in first place today in the ABC's golden jubilee tournament.

The Pfeiffers set two new ABC records in taking a 75-pin lead over the Budweiser Beers of Cincinnati Thursday night.

The 2137 score in the first two games by the Pfeiffers was the highest first two-game total in ABC history. Their 3181 and last year's winning total of 3115 gave them a record of being the first team to ever post two consecutive 3100 ABC totals. The Pfeiffers, then the E. & B. Beers, won the 1952 tourney at Milwaukee.

If the 3181 holds up through May 24, the Pfeiffers will become the first team ever to repeat in the ABC classic. Only teams ever to roll higher series were the Brik Bros. of Chicago in 1938 with 3234 and the Tea Shops of Milwaukee with 3199, in Peoria, Ill., in 1927.

The Pfeiffers hit 3181 on games of 1048, 1089 and 1044. George Young his 676, including 245 and 247 games.

The Modern Bowler team, a pick-up aggregation of spares from the Pfeiffers and Strohs in addition to two other Detroit bowlers, took over fifth place with a 3084 series. The Modern Bowler five shot 1110 in their first game, the second highest team game in the tournament to date.

Dollar Bay Is Tigers' Victim

NEGAUNEE — The Powers Spalding Tigers moved one notch closer to the Upper Peninsula Class D basketball championship here last night by eliminating a stubborn Dollar Bay quint 60-51 in the regional semifinals.

Next step for Coach Irv Soderlund's quint will come Saturday afternoon at 2 when the Tigers go against the Gwinn Model Towners in the championship tilt. Coach Don Ghiardi's Gwinn quintet downed Rudyard 68-60 in the other semifinal clash here last night.

Lead Changes Hands
Dollar Bay put up firm resistance before bowing to Powers' well-balanced attack. The Tigers took a slim 14-12 edge in the first period but ran into a Dollar Bay rally in the second and found themselves trailing by six points, 30-24, at the half.

But the Tigers came out in the third quarter and went to work on Dollar Bay's lead. Midway in the period they tied it up and by the end of the frame they sported a 40-37 lead.

They spread the margin by outscoring Dollar Bay 20-14 in the last period and won going away.

Team Victory
The victory was a team effort on the part of the Tigers. Smooth-operating center Jim Sargent took scoring honors for the night with 19 points on seven buckets and five free throws before fouling out of action. He was trailed in the scoring column by forward Ray Wells who potted 16 points. His running mate at the other forward post, John Henderson, clipped in 10. Jim Henderson fired in nine from a guard spot and Don O'Neill scored four. Reserve Hafeman added a field goal to complete the Powers scoring.

Powers, co-champs of the Little Seven Conference this season, outscored Dollar Bay from the field and from the charity line. The Tigers hit on 23 field goals and 14 free throws.

Quest For National Basketball Honors Begins

College Quints In Action

By ORLO ROBERTSON
AP Sports Writer

The quest for national basketball honors spreads tonight as 16 NCAA teams meet in the first round of four regional tournaments.

From the two-day competition at Raleigh, N. C., Chicago, Manhattan, Kan., and Corvallis, Ore., will come the four teams for the final rounds at Kansas City next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Meantime, the National Invitation Tournament in New York's Madison Square Garden was at a standstill, waiting for tomorrow's finals when top seeded Seton Hall meets unseeded St. John's of Brooklyn. Seton Hall moved into the finals last night with a 74-56 victory over fourth seeded Manhattan and St. John's came through with its third successive surprise in a 64-55 conquest of Duquesne.

NAIA Semi-Finals
And at Kansas City, the NAIA

reached the semi-final stage with defending champion Springfield (Mo.) State meeting Indiana State and Hamline clashing with East Texas. The finals will be played tomorrow night.

The NCAA teams, survivors of a field of 22 which started play last Tuesday, will line up as follows:

At Raleigh — Wake Forest (21-6) Southern Conference champion, vs. Holy Cross (19-5), New England representative; and Louisiana State (22-1), Southeastern Conference titleholder, vs. Lebanon Valley (19-1), Middle Atlantic Conference selection.

At Chicago — Indiana (19-3), Big Ten champs, vs. De Paul (18-7), an at-large nominee; and Notre Dame (18-4), vs. Pennsylvania (21-4), Ivy League king.

At Manhattan — Kansas (16-5), Big Seven champions and the defending titlist, vs. Oklahoma City (18-4), an independent team ranked 10th nationally; and Oklahoma A & M (22-6), Missouri Valley winner, vs. Texas Christian (14-7), Southwest Conference victors.

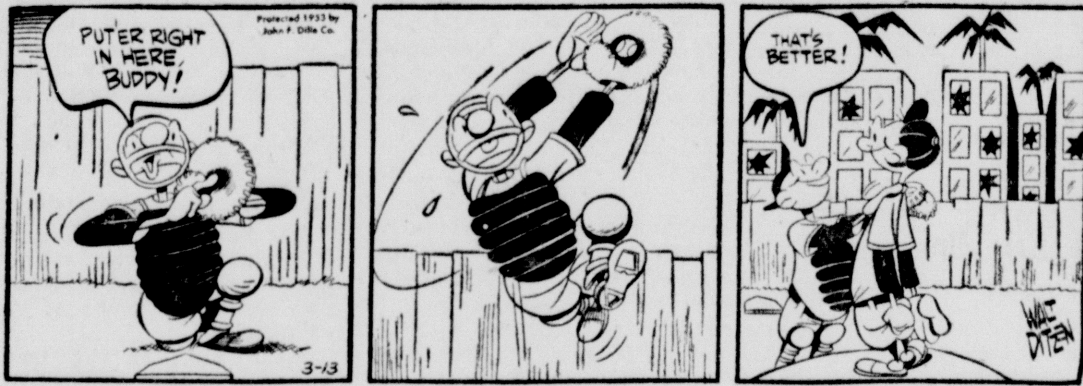

O'Brien To Play
At Corvallis — Washington (7-2), best of the Pacific Coast Conference, vs. Seattle (28-3), with little Johnny O'Brien; and Wyoming (20-8), champions of the Skyline Conference, vs. Santa Clara (19-6), at-large representative and winner of last year's Far West regional.

The team that probably will be the sentimental favorite is Lebanon Valley's midgets — a team from a school with an enrollment of 500 and on which there is not a player over 6-1. Enroute to the regionals Lebanon Valley knocked off Fordham but figures to be the underdog against Louisiana State with high scoring Bob Pettit.

Indiana, the country's top-ranked outfit, is the choice in the Chicago competition although Penn will have All-America Ernie Beck on display.

Ballyhoo Begins For Title Bout

HOLLAND (AP) — Champion Rocky Marciano's camp has plunged today into the malarkey and ballyhoo that always precedes a heavyweight championship fight.

Al Weill, Marciano's manager, feigned considerable indignation yesterday at remarks by Challenger Jersey Joe Walcott that he was thinking of training with a billy goat because it would simulate Marciano's charging, butting style.

"Rocky never has been disqualified, nor has he ever lost a round because of rough stuff," Weill spat out for the press, adding:

"I'm afraid Joe will need billy goats and everything else he can find to help him. He's just whistling in the dark, but if he needs billy goats, that's his problem."

Walcott claimed at his Atlantic City training camp a couple of days ago that Marciano butted him the most vicious butt he'd ever taken as Rocky won the championship from the aged Negro. Walcott recalled his teeth cut a gash in the top of the then-challenger's scalp.

As Weill threw the ballyhoo, Marciano went through four rounds of sparring for the edification of 800 paying spectators at his training camp here.

He and Walcott meet in Chicago April 10.

Three Defending Champs Get Regional Tourney Wins

By JOE FALLS
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Three defending champions posted victories and Lansing Sexton won the "big" game as the regional playoffs in the State High School Basketball Tournament sizzled on all fronts last night.

Unseeded Lansing Sexton, a precision-minded club, whipped Flint Northern 67-56, and that, many experts believe, just about clinched the Class A title for Sexton.

True enough, Sexton still must win its regional tournament, and also the quarter-finals, semi-finals and finals before it can be crowned champion, but these experts felt that the Flint Northern game would be the biggest hurdle.

Top-Rated Quint

And Sexton cleared it with ease. Top-rated in all state-wide polls, Sexton rushed into a 34-24 lead at halftime and rolled to its 17th straight victory with comparative ease. Tom Klewick scored 24 points for Sexton, as did Joe Robertson for Flint.

Next on the list for Sexton is Flint Central, which it will play in the regional final Saturday night.

The three champions to continue their triumphant tour were Detroit St. Andrew (Class B), Fowler (Class D) and Nahma (Class E).

St. Andrew was the only one to be hard-pressed. It almost blew an early lead but held on to defeat St. Florian, 46-40.

St. Andrew opened an 18-6 bulge in the first period but saw it cut to four points—39 to 35—going in to the fourth quarter. It stalled for last eight minutes, outscoring the fighting St. Florian crew, 7-5.

Tigers Knocked Off By Yankees, 5 To 0

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—The Detroit Tigers step down into their own class again today, after stepping up and taking a 5-0 pasting from the World Champion New York Yankees at St. Petersburg yesterday.

The Tigers, who finished at the tail-end of the American League in 1952, take on the Boston Red Sox, who finished sixth, here today.

Until they bumped into the Yankees, the Tigers were undefeated in Grapefruit League competition. But then they had met only the Cincinnati Reds twice, the Philadelphia Phillies and the Boston Braves of the National League.

Get Only Four Hits

The Tigers managed only a meager four hits off their second-line pitcher, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller, of the Yankees. Two of those four were singles by Frank Carswell, 33-year-old rookie outfielder. Harvey Kuenn and his substitute at third base, Al Federoff, got the other two Detroit singles.

Kuenn had to retire in the first inning, having injured his ankle attempting to avoid a tag at second base. How long he will be out is indefinite.

The Yankees got only six hits themselves off Sophomores Billy

Hoeft and Ray Herbert, but coupled with Hoeft's wildness, two errors by Federoff and Mickey Mantle's two hits, these were enough to humiliate the until-then high-flying Tigers.

Hoeft Walks Five
Hoeft walked five in his five-inning stint and gave up four runs, along with five of the Yankee hits. Federoff's two errors, both on throws and both in the fifth, accounted for the lone run off Herbert. Hoeft was charged with the loss.

While Mantle kept his spring training hitting streak of 444 going, Gene Woodling knocked in the most Yankee runs, three. But no one on either team got more than a single.

It was the first game since the Tigers embarked on their 1953 exhibition schedule that someone hasn't hit a home run—for them. Continuing his try-them-all technique, Manager Fred Hutchinson used 17 players against the Yanks and there was every indication he likely would use as many today against the Red Sox.

Indiana, Big Ten Champs, Face DePaul In NCAA Tilt

CHICAGO (AP)—Indiana's Big Ten champions, fresh from a record-breaking conference season, take over No. 1 billing in the NCAA's four-team eastern regional playoff opening tonight in Chicago Stadium.

The Hoosiers, top-ranked nationally, place their 19-3 season mark on the line against upstart DePaul (19-7) while Notre Dame (18-4) meets Pennsylvania (21-4), the Ivy League champion, in the opening game at 7:45 p. m. (CST).

The two winners will face off for the regional crown Saturday night, following a consolation game between the two first-night losers. The regional champion will qualify for the four-team NCAA finals in Kansas City Tuesday and Wednesday.

Indiana, geared by 6-9 Don

Schlundt, who averaged 24.9 through the entire season, and slick Bob Leonard, may have its hands full with DePaul. The gritty Blue Demons upset such highly-rated teams as LaSalle (twice), Oklahoma A & M and Notre Dame.

The Hoosiers three defeats were by Notre Dame (71-70), Kansas State (82-80) and Minnesota (65-63). Their 17 victories in conference activity was an all-time Big Ten high and they averaged 80.7 points in compiling a 17-1 league mark.

Notre Dame's strength lies in balance with four of its five starters averaging between 14 and 16 points through 21 games. Penn's attack is hubbed by Ernie Beck, 6-4 All-America center. His average is better than 20 points per game for the past two years.

Every first string player in the American League was signed today, but the war of nerves between Branch Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and his slugger, Ralph Kiner, continued unabated.

Cleveland infielder Bobby Avila, the last of the recalcitrant, signed with the Indians Thursday. It was believed Bobby took a $1,000 cut to about $16,000.

Avila showed up with a sprained ankle, and said he got it in an automobile accident.

Won't Take Cut

Kiner is holding out in California because he refuses to accept a 25 per cent cut.

"No player is greater than his team," said Rickey. "I made a deal with Kiner in which it was provided that if his contract was assigned to another club, Kiner would get additional money."

The Indians managed to defeat the New York Giants Thursday, 7-6, on Hank Majeski's home run in the 11th inning at Tucson, Ariz.

The Pirates took a 13-10 pasting from the Cuban All-Stars in Havana.

The New York Yankees got superb pitching from a couple of second-stringers as they shut out the Detroit Tigers, 5-0. Jim McDonald and Bill Miller combined to hold the Tigers to four singles. It was the Tigers' first grapefruit league loss.

Tigers Forgiven By 'Crisis Club'

DETROIT (AP)—Sixty-five members of the Crisis Club — "every day is a crisis"—left here by chartered plane last night for Lakeland, Fla., bearing a common council endorsed resolution telling the Detroit Tigers "all is forgiven."

The Tigers, who train at Lakeland, finished last in the American League race last year — the first Detroit team in history to do so.

The club is composed of Detroit sportsmen, politicians and business men. County Auditor Charles Edgecomb and Paul Sanderson were picked to present the "all is forgiven" scroll before the Detroit-St. Louis (NL) game at St. Petersburg Saturday.

their total offensive output and they dropped an 8-2 decision to the Philadelphia A's. The defeat snapped a five-game winning streak of the Brooks.

The Boston Red Sox broke out with five runs in the fifth inning to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 9-6.

In other games, the Chicago White Sox whipped the Chicago Cubs, 7-5; the Cincinnati Reds turned back the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-6; and the Boston Braves edged the Washington Senators, 9-8.

The St. Louis Browns sent two teams into action. The regulars were drubbed by Portland of the Pacific Coast League, 13-5, and the "B" squad licked Seattle of the PCL, 6-4.

Boxer Lowry Suffers Loss

DETROIT (AP) — Pat Manzi, 149½, Syracuse, N. Y., gave Pat Lowry, Toledo, O., a thorough going over and wound up with an unanimous eight-round decision in handing the Ohioan his second defeat in 25 professional fights here last night.

Lowry, who has a rock-'em right but little defense, jumped ahead on points in the first four rounds, but Manzi had him down twice for nine counts in the eighth and otherwise gave him such a beating that none of the officials saw anything but Manzi at the end.

Lowry's only other loss was to Joey Greenwood in a six-rounder here last summer, and he was an odds-on favorite with Motor City Arena ringiders as the televised bout opened.

Manzi's body attack had Lowry vomiting in his corner at the end of the seventh. The Ohioan looked slow and his right-hand timing was off.

Ask Power For Two Sawmills

To meet a request for additional electric power to supply industrial expansion in the city the Escanaba City Council in special meeting today authorized the purchase of six electric transformers costing $3,536.

Quotations were submitted by three suppliers and the Council approved purchasing the transformers from Westinghouse Company.

Westinghouse's price was $729.89 for three 75 KVA transformers, and $548.95 each for three 50 KVA transformers. Lake Shore Engineering Company's price was $727.89 and $548.95, and the bid of Champion company was $727.89 and $548.94 each. Westinghouse could supply the city faster than the others.

To Serve Sawmills

City Manager A. V. Aronson and Electric Department Superintendent Harvey Germanson advised the Council that Westinghouse has supplied the city with satisfactory equipment in the past.

Germanson told the Council the need for the transformers was immediate because two sawmill plants were to be established in the vicinity of the Fence Company of America plant on North 23rd St. The transformers are needed to meet the additional electric demand in that area.

One of the sawmills will be established by Swan Johnson of Escanaba and the other by Nelson & Parish of Ingalls, Menominee county. Nelson & Parish advised the city it wanted to start operating by April 1 and would employ about 25 men in the woods and at the plant.

Water Plant Payment

The Council discussed briefly the problem of electric supply for the Escanaba community and City Manager Aronson reported that except for the request for curtailment of non-essential electric use for outdoor Christmas decorations the Upper Michigan Power & Light Company has not asked the city to cut down on electric power for industries.

In other business the Council authorized the payment of approximately $40,000 to Pierson Construction Company, contractors who have completed the city water filtration plant, if the bonding company approves.

The city has held back 10 percent or about $80,000 of the total to be paid the Pierson company until the project has been received by the city and approved. The action to withhold 5 percent, rather than the full 10 percent, was approved by Council only if the bonding company agrees.

New Business Tax Based On Payrolls Backed In Lansing

LANSING (AP)—Speaker of the House Wade Van Valkenburg today proposed with the backing of legislative leaders, an emergency $60,000,000 business tax computed on payrolls.

Van Valkenburg proposed that any business which has employees under Federal Social Security be required to pay the tax.

He said the tax should have an expiration date, probably 1955, to force the Legislature to review economic conditions at that time and possibly correct the sales tax diversion amendment somewhat along the lines proposed in the Conlin plan.

The House Speaker said he conceived the tax but that it was endorsed by the house members of the Higgins Legislative Tax Study Committee. He said Senate members had agreed to let the proposal have priority and "see what the reaction is."

Van Valkenburg said Governor Williams had not been consulted about the proposal but that it met the requirements of an agreement.

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams' appointment of Mrs. Rosa Falk of Detroit to the State Board of Alcoholism was rejected by the Senate yesterday, but it confirmed two other gubernatorial selections, both Republicans.

The Republican Senate majority did not publicly explain its adverse vote, but members said privately Mrs. Falk is a member of Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) and is "meddlesome."

Only three of the eight Democratic senators voted for Mrs. Falk.

Williams' appointment of Mrs. Victoria A. Banks of Detroit for the State Welfare Commission and Miss Emilie Gleason Sargent of Detroit to the Crippled Children Commission was confirmed without opposition.

Copper Country To Get Airliner

DETROIT (AP)—North Central Airlines has announced that twice-daily air service linking Detroit with the western part of the Upper Peninsula will be inaugurated April 4.

The service will link Detroit, Lansing and Grand Rapids with Houghton and Hancock via Green Bay, Wis., according to NCA president Howard A. Morey.

Two round-trip flights daily will begin and end at Willow Run Airport. Two twin-engine Douglas DC-3 airliners will be assigned to the new 286-mile route.

Air service to the Upper Peninsula was opened in August, 1947, by Nationwide Airlines, but the service was discontinued in January, 1952. The Civil Aeronautics Board refused to certify the company.

Last October the CAB awarded the route for passengers, mail and express to North Central formerly Wisconsin Central Airlines.

North Central already serves Menominee, Escanaba, Iron Mountain, Marquette, Hancock, Houghton and Ironwood on flights starting in Wisconsin.

New 3-D Pictures To Show Up Falsies

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Today—Friday the 13th—is a good time to warn film queens who use falsies to fill out their forms or girdles to hold them in.

Coming days may prove unlucky for you girls, because there's 3-D in your future. And that means only actresses with bona fide figures will get by, says designer Helen Rose.

Hollywood's current craze for new-dimensional films will bring even closer scrutiny by movie goers, Miss Rose observes. Film fans will be able to see the depth of their screen favorites, and the dimensions cannot be faked.

Padding Detected

"The 3-D processes accent thinness or stoutness," the designer remarked. "Artificial means of enhancing figures will be virtually impossible; no matter how artful they are, their unnaturalness can generally be detected."

"Skinny girls will no longer be able to pad themselves with falsies. Overweight girls cannot rely on girdles to cover up their excesses at the table. They will have to get themselves in genuine shape for the 3-D camera."

With understandable pride, Miss Rose declared that her studio, MGM, is well-equipped for the 3-D onslaught. She pointed to a bevy of beautiful bodies which the lot controls.

Lana Turner—"Her figure was never better than it is in her latest picture. She has slimmed down so that her measurements are the same as when she started in pictures, except for a half-inch added to her bust and a half-inch off her hips."

saying the Soviet general personally had linked into the case and could find no guilt on the part of the Soviet pilots.

Only One Survivor

Seven crewmen were aboard the British bomber. The crash killed four outright and another—the navigator—died of his injuries before reaching the hospital. This morning the pilot succumbed. The Russians announced the sole survivor was under treatment for injuries at an East German hospital.

As the incident thus turned into a diplomatic battle of notes, the American, British and French high commissioners met here to consider what to do about the attacks from Communist jets.

The British-Russian paper war appeared destined for the same futile pattern as the exchange between the United States and Czechoslovakia after two Czech MIG15 jets destroyed an American Thunderjet last Tuesday 15 miles inside U. S.-occupied Bavaria.

Host British officials viewed the two incidents as part of the same pattern—a deliberate show of strength by Soviet Premier Georgi M. Malenkov's new Kremlin regime.

Movieland Red Held In Perjury

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sidney Buchman, who made big money writing and producing movies in Hollywood until he admitted he had been a communist, has been convicted of contempt of Congress.

A federal court jury reached its verdict late Thursday. Buchman, 51, is free on bond pending sentencing Monday. He faces up to a year in jail and a fine of $1,000.

The contempt charge grew out of Buchman's refusal to respond to a subpoena to appear before the House un-American Activities Committee Jan. 28, 1952, during its red-in-Hollywood inquiry.

Another contempt of Congress trial got under way immediately. The defendant is Mrs. Mary Jane Kenney, a former government worker and a former employee of the United Nations.

The charge against Mrs. Kenney is based on her refusal to tell the Senate internal security subcommittee in February, 1952, whether anyone in the State Department had any part in her getting a job with the U. N. She said U. N. rules did not permit her to discuss this.

Mrs. Kenney also declined to answer when the Senate subcommittee asked whether she had ever been a Communist party member. She said an answer might tend to incriminate her. This refusal was not included in the indictment.

Malenkov Starts Rule With Crisis

to be made by President Eisenhower.

The State Department was about ready to denounce and reject as unfounded Czechoslovakia's claim that the U. S. fighter plane which was fired on and shot down by Russian-made MIGs Tuesday had crossed from the U. S. zone of Germany into Czechoslovakia. The Reds at Prague took that line in rejecting an initial U. S. protest.

Legally and technically, it was apparent that the precise location of the British bomber shot down yesterday would have a lot to do with any protest which could be made to Soviet authorities. The situation would be one thing if it was within limits, another if it had strayed into prohibited territory.

But the point which U. S. authorities made in this connection was that a ruthless and slashing assault simply because an airplane has gotten a little out of line can only be explained under a very tough top policy. It is not, in the words of one official, in the "best traditions of civilized conduct."

Started Under Stalin

Attacks on Allied aircraft by Red fighters started during the Stalin regime. Such incidents have occurred many times at various locations.

It is possible that the new Malenkov Cabinet decided that to demonstrate its power there are to be a few incidents rather promptly, and that it ordered action of the kind taken.

But even if this did not happen the belief here is that the policy of toughness certainly will be continued and probably intensified in coming months. It would keep Malenkov's outside enemies engaged while he tried to consolidate his internal position; it might also tend to create a state of crisis in which Russians potentially opposed to Malenkov would hesitate to challenge his power.

Another theory advanced by some is that the Soviets may be trying to divert attention from some other part of the world

Hold Wiles Did Not Violate Liquor Law

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission following a hearing on appeal in Lansing March 10 has ruled that Lee A. Wiles, proprietor of The Tavern, 1318 Ludington is not guilty of a violation of the liquor laws as originally charged.

It was charged that Wiles sold beer to a minor, James Tuyls, early in 1952. Following a hearing in Escanaba Oct. 28 before Commissioner Kenneth Daniels of the Liquor Control Commission Wiles was ordered to pay a fine of $150 and have his license suspended for seven days.

The order was issued in January and an appeal was taken for rehearing before the Commission in Lansing, when the Commission reversed the decision.

where they may be planning new trouble.

In a situation of this kind, there is always danger of starting a chain of events leading to great explosion. Officials, however, do not appear to believe that the chances of a war between Russia and the West have been increased. On the other hand, they say, a lot depends on what happens in Germany as the Western nations grapple with their rearmament problems and the Soviets tighten their lines around West Berlin.
